PROGRAM FOR FLAG DAY BIG

G. A. R. TO HAVE PART IN THE CELEBRATION.

Public Urged to Attend Celebration in Honor of Flag Friday.

Friday, June 14, is Flag Day, and is celebrated by every lodge of Elks. The ceremony for this occasion is provided by the grand lodge, and its observance is mandatory upon every subordinate lodge. La Grande's lodge will hold the Flag Day service in the auditorium, beginning at 8 p. m. Every member is requested to meet at the club rooms at 7 o'clock. The committee in charge has provided an excellent program for the occasion.

The Elks' Glee club and the band will render selection appropriate to the occasion. Every Elk is urged to attend the services.

The members are called to meet at 7 o'clock at the club rooms and from there will start the parade on the downtown streets. It is necessary that the parade start promptly. Gustave Anderson of Baker will deliver the principal address but there will be musical numbers and a ritualistic program as prescribed by the grand lodge. The public is urgently requested to attend these exercises.

The celebration is more than a lodge affair for the G. A. R. here will participate in the parade and attend the services in a body.

Parade Rules Out.

Details relative to the parade in Portland during the grand lodge, have been announced locally. For the benefit of La Grande Elks, these rules are published:

Our costumes must be absolutely uniform from the front rank to the rear rank.

This costume MUST consist of:

- White coat.
- Blue four-in-hand tie.
- White gloves.
- White trousers.
- Black shoes.
- Cane with colors attached.

The canes and colors will be provided at the lodge rooms before the lodge goes to Portland.

Fred Savage Married.

Fred Savage and Miss Alice Proctor were married in La Grande Sunday, June 9, at 9 o'clock, by Rev. Borden in the presence of Miss Proctor's parents and Mrs. Joel at the latter's residence. Mr. Savage is a bookkeeper in Mr. Funk's store at Enterprise. Miss Proctor is a graduate of the Northwestern university and has been in Portland the past winter but was called home by the serious illness of her father a short time ago. The young people took Sunday morning's train for Portland where they will attend the rose show and visit with Mr. Savage's parents who are in Portland. The young people will be at home to their many friends at Enterprise in the near future.

Smith & Decker, presenting "The Bell Boy and the Belle" by T. R. Shannon at the Arcade tonight. This is an entire change of vaudeville and comes highly recommended. Tonight is the last chance to see that roaring comedy, "Alkali Ike's Bride."

State Campaign in Maine.

Augusta, Me., June 13.—Though the date for Maine's first state-wide primaries is but four days distant, the campaign is attracting comparatively little attention. The only contests that have aroused any public interest are those for the republican nominations for governor and United States senator, for each of which there are three candidates in the field. On the democratic side there is no opposition to the re-nomination of Governor Fredrick D. Plaisted and Senator Obadiah Garaber. The men seeking the republican nomination for governor are Frederick E. Boothby of Portland, Albert H. Shaw of Bath and William T. Haine of Waterville. Those desiring the republican nomination for United States senator are former Congressman Edwin C. Burleigh of Augusta, Judge Frederick A. Powers of Houlton and Herbert M. Heath of Augusta.

Convention of New York Bankers.

Buffalo, N. Y., June 13.—The New York State Bankers' association began its 19th annual convention in this city today, with headquarters at the Lafayette hotel. President Walter H. Bennett presided at the initial session this morning and the chief feature of the program was an address by George M. Reynolds, president of the Continental and Commercial National bank of Chicago. The bankers devoted the afternoon to a cruise on Lake Erie. At the concluding session tomorrow the prominent speakers will include Sir Edmund Walker, president of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, and George E. Allen, educational director of the American Institute of Banking.

Epworth League Meeting.

Spartanburg, S. C., June 13.—Many visitors arrived in Spartanburg today to attend the annual conference of the South Carolina Epworth League. The gathering will be in session three days and will have as speakers Bishop John C. Kilgo and several other churchmen and religious workers of wide prominence.
