"Titanic Waifs" Restored To Their Youthful Mother

AFTER tragic and romantic experiences such as fall to the lot of few, whether babies or grownups, the two Titanic waifs, Michel and Edmond, have been restored to their pretty young mother, Mme. Navratil, who, mourning the loss of her children, taken from her by their father, from whom she was separated, first learned of their whereabouts through the newspaper accounts of the two beautiful children rescued from the sinking vessel and tenderly cared for by a young New York woman, also a survivor of the wreck. Probably no two children in humble life (their father, who went to his death like a man on the Titanic, was a tailor and their mother a saleswoman) have ever received the worldwide attention which came to these two boys. Their beauty and the pathetic circumstances of their rescue and restoration to their mother constituted the one episode of the disaster upon which the mind can dwell with unalloyed gratification, so full is the whole story of human nature and human kindness. In spite of many offers for the adoption of the children their mother has taken them back to their home in Nice and declares that she will never part with them.

Oh, How I Itched!

What long nerve-racking days of constant torture—what sleepless nights of terrible agony—itch—itch—itch, constant itch, until it seemed that I must tear off my very skin—then—
 Instant relief—my skin cooled, soothed and healed!
 The very first drops of D.D.D. Prescription for Eczema stopped that awful itch instantly; yes, the very moment D.D.D. touched the burning skin the torture ceased. A 25c bottle proves it.
 D.D.D. has been known for years as the only absolutely reliable eczema remedy, for it washes away the disease germs and leaves the skin as clear and healthy as that of a child.
 All other druggists have D.D.D. Prescription—go to them if you can't come to us. But if you don't accept some big profit motive.
 But if you come to our store, we are so certain of what D.D.D. will do for you that we offer you a full size bottle on this guarantee:—If you do not find that it cures your itch AT ONCE, it costs you not a cent.
