

BUSINESS TO HALT JULY 4

LITTLE IF ANY COMMERCIAL BUSINESS.

Believed Most of the Larger Department Stores Will Close.

Little, if any, commercial business will be transacted in La Grande July Fourth. The grocery stores as a rule will be closed all day and it is probable that the same sort of a rule will apply to the larger general merchandise stores, though no definite announcement has been made in this respect.

The following grocery stores will be closed all day:

- Pattison Bros.
- Union County Co-Operative Store.
- City Grocery and Bakery.
- J. G. Snodgrass.
- Cummings & French.
- Thorne and Wilcox.
- White's Grocery.
- Geddes Bros.
- O. R. Stageberg.

COMPARISONS

are odious" we are told. Besides we determined, before launching our advertising and sales campaign, to avoid slighting references to other residence districts of La Grande. If CONNORDALE won't sell on its MERITS we don't want it to sell at all. We can afford to take this position, because it is being demonstrated to us every day that this property IS SELLING on merit backed by GOOD JUDGMENT AND FAIR DEALING.

But there are some impressions existing in regard to Connordale, created no doubt by people who are not as scrupulous as we are in the matter of a SQUARE DEAL, that should be corrected.

In the first place CONNORDALE is precisely the same distance (as shown by the City Engineer's map) from the center of town, as is the City Hall and the High School. As a matter of fact it is a SHORTER WALKING DISTANCE because there is NO HILL TO CLIMB. The wind blows no harder in CONNORDALE than elsewhere in La Grande, indeed not so hard as it does on The HILL, as witness the fact that very few of the OLDER RESIDENTS live on the unprotected heights. CONNORDALE property IS NOT too high priced. It is assessed at approximately the same value as corresponding property on the hill, and SELLS FOR LESS, its increase in value will be GREATER AND QUICKER because of the improvements and restrictions placed upon it. Its HOME-BUILDING GROWTH will outstrip all other sections of La Grande because of the EASY PAYMENT BUILDING OFFER WE WILL MAKE YOU.
