

WILSON DEFINES WAR LINES

TARIFF ISSUES OUTREACH ALL

EVERY POLITICAL ISSUE CENTERS ON THE TARIFF

SUCH IS EXPRESSION FROM GOVERNOR WILSON

Careful Scrutiny to Be Applied to Campaign Contributions by the Democratic Nominee—Claims Money Is Coming in Unsolicited From All Parts of the Country.

Sea Girt, N. J., July 6.—That the tariff will overshadow all other issues in the coming campaign was the positive declaration made here today by Governor Wilson.

"Undoubtedly the tariff is the chief object of interest to the people in the United States," said Wilson. "It is interlarded with every other issue. In fact it is at the very heart of every other question. A great many and nearly all, in fact, 'trust' questions have their origin in the tariff."

Wilson took occasion today to comment on "the question of campaign contributions" and made it plain that he will carefully scrutinize all contributions to the democratic campaign fund and said today that money was coming unsolicited from all parts of the United States.

"I have had dozen of contributions" said the governor, "which ranged in amounts from $5.00 to $100.00. This came entirely unsolicited which is my idea of the way the campaign funds should come."

Roosevelt Is Answered

Washington, July 16.—Characterizing Roosevelt as a "man without a party," who is "attempting to cut a path into American politics for his third party by petty criticism of the democratic candidates," Representative Burleson of Texas replied to the charges made yesterday by Colonel Roosevelt.

"There is no room for a third party," Burleson declared. "Roosevelt realizes that the fact is the greatest impediment in his new organization scheme. He is always seeking the platitudes and policies of the republican and democratic platforms in an effort to discover some flaw on which he can build the foundation for a third party. He is attempting the impossible."

Burleson denied Roosevelt's assertion that Wilson is a free trader.

LORIMER ISSUE DRAWN

Final Vote to Come in Senate Next Week.

Washington, July 6.—When prayer was over and other routine business

OROZCO'S ARMY DYING RAPIDLY

FINAL STAND OF WARFARE ON WEST COAST.

Defeated Rebel General Leading His Troops to Juarez Today.

El Paso, Tex., July 6.—General Orozco, commanding the Mexican rebel army, today is expected to arrive at Juarez from the south. With him is the remainder of his army. It is Orozco's plan to stop here only temporarily and then send troops on to Basas Grandes, and then west to the state of Sonora.

Utterly defeated in his effort to overthrow the Madero government, Orozco expects to concentrate all his efforts on that state to conduct an organized guerrilla warfare.

disposed of in the senate today, William Lorimer of Illinois, again faced a battle over his right to a seat as a member. Senator Dillingham of Vermont, who, as chairman of the privileges and elections committee, was chairman of the committee which investigated Lorimer's election, was the first speaker. He analyzed in detail the evidence in the case. Late in the afternoon Lorimer appeared on the floor and listened attentively to what Dillingham said. The final vote may come next week or later.

Hot at Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, July 6.—Two persons died early today as the result of excessive heat, making 11 who have succumbed to the present heat wave. Many prostrations were also reported and no immediate relief is in sight.

Chicago, July 6.—The heat continued today and many prostrations are reported and many deaths expected.

WRECK VICTIMS NUMBER 22
Ligonier, Pa., July 6.—A final reckoning of the dead in the railroad wreck late yesterday on the Ligonier Valley line, today is 22 with eight others, who deaths are momentarily expected. The list of injured is 40.

Unemployed to Talk Panaceas.

New York, July 6.—Various problems that are supposed to add thorns to the workingman's path through life are to be discussed at a three day conference which was begun in this city today under the auspices of an organization which manages to exist under the title of the "National Committee of the Unemployed of the National Brotherhood Welfare association." The organization is working for the establishment of a national employment bureau, for free transportation for laboring men in pursuit of jobs, and for shorter working hours a minimum wage scale and insurance against unemployment.

Chair Awaits Three Slayers.

New York, July 6.—The electric chair in the big prison at Sing Sing awaits three prospective victims for the week beginning tomorrow. Only once before since the installation of the chair have three executions taken place in a single week. The three condemned to die next week are Santa Zanza, who, with five others killed Mrs. Mary Hall at Croton Lake in November, 1911; Giuseppe Cerelli who stabbed Nicola Di Paulo in a card game at White Plains and George Williams, who killed Charles Conklin, station master at Croton Lake, on April 8, 1911.

Russell Will Case Again.

Boston, Mass., July 6.—The famous Russell will case is due for another airing in the courts at East Cambridge next week, but owing to the summer vacation season it is thought likely an adjournment of the trial until fall will be agreed upon when the case is called on Monday. In the former trial, which was one of the longest in the history of the Massachusetts courts, the claimant known as "Dakota Dan" was unsuccessful in his efforts to secure a share of the Daniel Russell estate. The new suit was instituted by the North Dakota claimant to establish his identity as the son of Daniel Russell. If successful in establishing his identity as the son of Daniel Russell, the claimant naturally would renew his efforts to secure a share of the Russell fortune.

New Yorker Weds at Oxford.

London, July 6.—In the famous university town of Oxford, Francis Hartman Markoe, son of Mrs. Francis H. Markoe of New York City, was married today to Miss Mariella York-Powell, daughter of the late Professor Frederick York-Powell of Oxford university. The marriage ceremony was followed by a reception in the hall and quadrangle of All Souls' college.

YANKEE BOYS SHOW FORM

FIVE PASS QUALIFICATIONS IN 100 METER RACE.

WESTERN MEN WIN

World's Record Equalled and Olympic Record Broken in Dish.

Stockholm, July 6.—American athletes showed their calibre today in the preliminary events at the Olympic games which opened today. Five American representative qualified in the 100 meter dash and eight in the 800 meter run. In addition the only Olympic record broken was that shattered by an American Donally P. Lippincott of the University of Pennsylvania who reduced the Olympic record for 100 meters from 16 4-5 seconds to 15 3-5 seconds. This equals the world's record.

J. I. Courtney of the Seattle Athletic club, qualified in the 100 meter event and Clarence Edmundson of the Seattle A. C., also qualified, in the 800 meter run. Courtney stole a 1 was thrown out.

BELLINGHAM SCRIBE WINS

NATIONAL VOTE BY PROXY THROWN OUT OF CONVENTION

CONVENTION DELEGATES DECIDE HEATED RACE

Brooklyn Lady Choice of Majority of Proxies but When Vote Is Taken to Convention Floor She Is Defeated—Vice Presidency Also Taken to Convention Floor.

Deadlocked over the election of a president and vice president by the proxy method which governs the United Amateur Press association of the United States, it devolved upon the score of delegates attending the national convention of that organization, here to throw out the proxies, and take the election of officers onto the

HANGING BEE QUIET AFFAIR

ASSASSIN OF OFFICER IS HANGED TO TREE.

NEGRO PICNIC FAULT

Fight Between Negroes Leads to Murder of Officer and Lynching.

Little Rock, Ark., July 6.—John Williams, a negro, was hanged by a mob at Plummerville, near here, today. Williams had killed Officer Paul Nisler when the authorities attempted to stop a fight at a negro picnic.

The mob went quietly about its work, taking Williams from the officers and hanging him to a tree.

Williams made but little resistance as he was powerless and seemed to realize his predicament, although intoxicated.

floor of the convention. The majority of the votes cast by proxies, coming in by mail from all parts of the United States favored Helene Hoffman of Brooklyn for the presidency but when after two deadlock ballots with proxies, the question was put to a vote by the delegates, Harry Sheppard of Bellingham carried the issue by a close margin. Something of a similar issue developed in the vice presidency when Edward J. Callahan of Brooklyn and Charles Kramer of Chicago were deadlocked. On the second ballot no decision was reached and Jess L. Robertson of La Grande was presented as a compromise candidate and the proxies thrown out. Kramer fell out of the race but Robertson lacked one of seating, the office going to the Brooklyn man. Other officers are under course of selection this afternoon. A heated debate occurred in the selection of all officers thus far.

Resolutions Are Drawn.

Chairman Anthony F. Mottoret of San Francisco ran through the resolutions presented this afternoon a dominant chord aiming at more attention to literary efforts and less political squabble in the business of the convention and association. Retiring officers were congratulated, and La Grande was loudly praised for her entertainment of the convention in the resolutions.

The selection of the next meeting place and the banquet this evening make up the residue of the program for this convention.

co, Chicago, Cincinnati and all the others.

On Friday a magnificent fleet of naval and merchant vessels will carry the Elks and their families on an excursion down the Willamette and Columbia rivers. The United States cruiser Boston will head the procession, and will be followed by other naval craft and the boats of the Oregon Yacht club.

The annual grand ball, the principal social feature of every Elk convention, will take place Friday night at the Multnomah hotel. All visiting Elks and their families will be admitted free.

No set program has been prepared for Saturday, the closing day of the reunion, but free automobile and boat service will be available for all visiting lodgemen. When the gathering breaks up large parties of eastern visitors will begin a tour of California, Washington, British Columbia and the entire Pacific coast country before turning their faces homeward. At many points included in the itinerary of these parties the local lodges of Elks are arranging special entertainment for the tourists.

Johnson Is Home.

Chicago, July 6.—Jack Johnson arrived here today and was greeted by a crowd of local admirers. He was attired in a white suit, tan shoes, Panama hat. Mrs. Johnson carried a tiny white rabbit that blinked when the sun struck the large diamond pendant at her throat.

Jack Roberts to Hang.

Portland, Ore., July 6.—Jack Roberts was today sentenced to hang on August 23 for the murder of Donald Stewart whom he shot, together with George Hastings, near here, March 29, when an automobile party of which the murdered men were members, refused to halt at his demand.

GRANGERS AT PARK EDIFIED

GOVERNOR WEST CENTRAL FIGURE AMONG SPEAKERS

PROMINENT GRANGERS ON PROGRAM THIS AFTERNOON

Day Taken up With Program of Music and Addresses and Lectures by Prominent People of the State—Picnic Dinner Enjoyed by About One Hundred This Noon.

Centering about the address of the day by Governor Oswald West, the addresses by Walter M. Pierce of Hot Lake, good roads discussion and an address by A. I. Mason of Hood River, and F. A. Sykes' address on co-operation, grangers and farmers union dry patrons this afternoon participated in a stirring series of numbers for the edification and instruction of all. About 200 grangers and farmers union members heard the addresses, along with others who showed much interest in the events. The program was changed slightly, the morning sessions being taken up with music by the Young quartet, a chorus by the grange, readings by Mary Carter, a recitation by Alfred Ingram and a solo by Jack Keefe, Jr. The afternoon was devoted to more music and the speeches enumerated.

About 100 were present to enjoy the picnic dinners this noon and the afternoon crowd was doubled.

The state institutions and good roads was the general theme of Governor West's address. The governor was a guest at luncheon today with Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Holmes and appeared on the chautauqua grounds to time for the first number this afternoon. The speeches will not be concluded until 5 o'clock or after this afternoon.

The Immediate Numbers

The Byron troubadours will be the stellar attractions tomorrow and also Monday but tonight Lou J. Beauchamp holds the boards again commencing at 6 o'clock following a program of music.

The Byron troupe is a great musical crowd, playing a great variety of instruments and carrying several excellent soloists. People who love dashing, inspiring music will find solace there. The company will be here until the end of the chautauqua and the management is pleased to announce that it is reserving some of the very best for the last. The chautauqua will close with a great showing.

Babe of Two Years Burns.

Oakland, Cal., July 6.—Ernest Lee, aged three years was frightfully burned today trying to rescue his two-year-old sister from a burning home. The boy was rescued with extreme difficulty by the neighbors. The baby, aged two years was burned to death in a crib.

OLYMPIC HITS MUD BOTTOM

BIG LINER MAY BE IN GRIEF UNTIL 12

Runs Away From Steamer to Avoid Collision and Hits Mud.

New York, July 6.—The White Star liner Olympic went aground in the upper bay near Ellis Island this noon when forced to change her course to avoid running down the steam yacht Viking.

The liner grounded at high tide but was not in a dangerous position—on a mud bottom. Tugs went to her assistance but it may be impossible to get her off until the next flood tide at midnight.

ELK, WELL GROOMED, TO SHOW THEIR STYLE TOMORROW AT 8

Tomorrow night about 200 people will evacuate La Grande in favor of Portland for a week or ten days when the Elk special train leaves here at 8:30. The Elks will be dressed in their bib and tucker for the occasion and will make their first appearance in uniform tomorrow at 8 o'clock when they meet the Omaha special carrying Elk from Nebraska. The noon entertainment for the Salt Lake and Idaho Elk has been cancelled because the change in train schedule brings them into La Grande tonight instead of tomorrow noon. The Omaha Elks will stop here for an hour and the marching club and the band will meet them in state and a ride about the fruit section will be the order of the entertainment. Elaborate plans for serving luncheon for the ladies have been dropped.

Tomorrow night again the band will give a short concert commencing at 7:30 and at that time the Elk will be dressed in their uniforms, no doubt. The natty costumes to be worn are pressed and shined and the showing of the Elk will make will be a splendid one. The grand lodge opens Monday and the local Elk and their wives will be on hand for the opening day's outside attractions. Those who will go include:

Sherwood, Orland M. Heacock and Ernest Annis and wife.

Monday will be devoted to the reception of the visitors. Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Sargent are members of the reception committee. The formal opening of the grand lodge session will take place Monday evening in the armory. The program will include addresses of greeting by the governor of Oregon and the mayor of Portland and a response for the visiting host by Grand Exalted Ruler John P. Sullivan of New Orleans.

One thousand automobiles will be put into use Tuesday to convey the visiting Elks and their ladies on sight seeing trips about the city. Several steamers have been chartered for excursions on the Willamette and Columbia rivers.

Tuesday night the brilliant electrical parade that has become the noted spectacular feature of Portland's annual Bree Festival will be reproduced for the benefit of the visitors. This parade will consist of a score of allegorical floats, representing the development of Oregon and the northwester. To this array will be added a number of magnificent floats typical of Elkdom.

Wednesday has been set aside for entertainment at the "Oaks" which is Portland's famous outdoor resort or the Willamette river. A sea food dinner, with tons of Columbia river salmon as the chief item on the menu will be served free to the visitors.

Thursday will be the day of the big parade, in which some 50,000 Elks in gorgeous costumes will take part. The parade will be in charge of James R. Nicholson of Springfield, Mass., grand esquire of the order, who has had a good many years' experience in arranging street pageants. Portland lodge, being the host, will occupy the position of honor at the head of the procession. The other lodges will follow in order, taking position according to the number of their charter. New York being No. 1, will follow immediately after Portland. Then will come Philadelphia, San Francis-
