LOCAL BAND A BIG FAVORITE

PHOTOGRAPHS AND WRITEUPS APPEAR IN PAPERS.

More Elks Going to Portland Tonight—Wichitans Relate Incident.

La Grande's band is cutting some capers in Portland, and pictures of the music makers and numerous mentions in the metropolitan papers has been the order of the day since Prof. Snapp and his 20 odd colleagues invaded the city of Portland. During the all-night jollification Monday the La Grande band was conspicuous with its music and enterprise, serenading and making music with plenty of generosity.

More Visitors Going.
Tonight at least 18 more Elks and others will go to Portland to witness the big parade there tomorrow when a special pullman out of here will be occupied by belated visitors. Local Agent J. H. Keeney has secured enough to guarantee the trip and as the car goes onto No. 9, the last pull, a few minutes after 9:00 o'clock, the visitors will get into Portland in good time.

La Grande Is Mentioned.
Wichita boosters are relating in Portland the incident occurring when the Wichita special stopped in Grande Ronde valley, to remember departed Elks. The Oregonian tells of the event as follows:
Wichita Elks stopped their special train near La Grande Sunday night to drink the 11 o'clock toast. This was done at the suggestion of W. M. Dedrick, secretary of the Wichita lodge, and H. J. House, one of the members, assisted by A. T. Ashby, of Coffeyville.
The Kansans were in their private cars, just warming up for a good time, when the mystic hour of 11 approached. "Dick" Buckley, assistant superintendent of the O.-W. R. & N., was accompanying the party, when Ed Tessenden, mayor of Emporia, called attention to the necessity of observing the Elk custom of toasting their absent brothers.
"Can we stop the train?" Dedrick asked the railroad man.
"The Elks can do anything they want with this train," Buckley replied. So the engineer was ordered to stop. The passengers left the cars and there on the prairie under a starry canopy, they stood in silence while one of their number eulogized the absent ones—both living and dead.

Arcade Tonight.
An exceptionally well balanced program and a very funny act of vaudeville complete the bill at the Arcade tonight. The pictures are above the average and all absolutely new films. Nothing but first class films are being used, giving a bright clear picture and showing the photography at its best.
The program includes: A fine sea story and a high class drama and two big laughable comedies, features Herbert Prior and Miss Mabel Trunnell, the old favorites.

"Papa's Double" a great comedy, by the Majestic company at the Arcade tonight.

Pendleton, July 10. — (Special) — When it looked like another scalp might be gouged from her enemies a Grande lost in the finish of the opener with the Bucks yesterday.
After throwing Osborne down hard during the first part of the game, so that the tallenders got a two-run lead the Buckaroos redeemed themselves in the final cantos by falling upon the slants of Fox and pounding him for six runs. The final score was: La Grande, 2; Pendleton, 6.
In the beginning it looked as if the game was to go to the Pippins through the loose fielding work of the home guards. In the second inning three consecutive errors allowed the visitors to chase one across, while in the fourth a two-sacker from King's bat, a fluke single and a sacrifice allowed another. Fox was in fine form until the sixth, when the Buckaroos slugged his offerings for five hits, three of which went for extra bases, and these, with a pass and a bonehead by Barry, allowed four runs.

Pendleton got one in the seventh and one in the eighth, each by reason of a triple, followed by singles.
The score:

La Grande ..... 2 7 2
Pendleton ..... 6 12 4
Batteries—Fox and King; Osborne and Pembroke.
Boise Trimmed Again.
Walla Walla, July 10.—The Irrigators were done again yesterday. The story is:
R. H. E.
Walla Walla ..... 6 7 1
Boise ..... 1 7 3
Batteries—Boise, Smith and Fox; Walla Walla, Pittman and Brown.
Pittman had the best support and control.

BASEBALL GOSSIP.

"Dad" Gimlin of the Boise club has purchased Pitcher Pope of the Oakland Coast league club and it is likely that the new acquisition to the Boise club will report there. The Irrigator management is also after Babe Reems, a fast infielder in the Washington state league.

Bud Jones, the Bears' new infielder is expected to report today.
W. E. Golden is the new umpire in the Western Tri-State league. His appointment was officially announced yesterday by President Sweet. Golden was officiating in the Washington State league, and his working this week was conditional on the death of that organization. Since he is now working for the Tri-State, the im-

AT SHERRY'S

Two Two-Reel Feature Pictures on the Boards.

"On the War Path," a 2-reel Bison feature, showing how the Yuma Indians, having made peace with the government, are attacked by their former allies, the Apaches. A Yuma warrior, in a sensational dash, reaches the fort and secures the assistance of the soldiers who plunge into the raging battle and save the Yumas from death. A tremendous cast is used in this picture.
Another two-reel feature by the Gem company, entitled, "Under Two Flags," a powerful tale of war, will be shown at Sherry's on Wednesday and Thursday nights.

NEW LEAGUE MEETING TO BE HELD TONIGHT.

Final Organization Meeting to Take Place This Evening.
Y. M. C. A. headquarters have been moved from the George H. Currier real estate office to the adjoining rooms formerly occupied by an electrical supply company and General Secretary J. H. Radd is locating himself therein today. The first meeting of any kind to be held in the new offices will be that tonight at the formation of the twilight league. The committee named to look after the fellows and constitution will meet at 7 o'clock tonight and the principal organization meeting is set for 8 at 8:30. The final arrangements for the league going this week so that an actual start can be recorded prior to the coming of the Pippins when the

DEPOT NOT IN STORE-FARREL

LITTLE ENCOURAGEMENT CAN BE GIVEN.

President of O.-W. Here on Inspection Tour, Praises Crops.

There is little hope for a new O.-W. depot in this city for the present, according to President J. D. Farrell of the O.-W. who was in the city this morning with a crowd of officials on an inspection tour. Mr. Farrell was accompanied by Assistant General Manager Graham of the mechanical department and J. D. Mahoney, the general storekeeper. They arrived last night and this morning went on to Huntington on their inspection, planning on returning this evening.

Mr. Farrell, who recently took the presidency of the road, is much elated at the crop prospects in this section and commented on the probabilities of a big grain crop, having overlooked the scope of the fruit crop but he was equally glad to hear that apples and cherries cut as much figure as wheat. "No, I don't see much chance for a new depot," re-affirmed the president.

fligator management is also after Babe Reems, a fast infielder in the Washington state league.
Bud Jones, the Bears' new infielder is expected to report today.
W. E. Golden is the new umpire in the Western Tri-State league. His appointment was officially announced yesterday by President Sweet. Golden was officiating in the Washington State league, and his working this week was conditional on the death of that organization. Since he is now working for the Tri-State, the impression prevails that the Washington explosion has occurred, but nothing definite to that effect has been learned. Golden umpired the game yesterday at Walla, and is to work today at Pendleton. Knell relieving him at Walla Walla.

If the Washington state league has exploded it means that Babe Reems, the Aberdeen shortstop, will report to the Boise club and Gimlin's infield will be materially strengthened. The Boise club may also secure other players from the wreck if they are needed.
