WALLOWA COUNTY BRIEFLETS.

Enterprise, Record-Chieftain.

Huckleberries are beginning to ripen at Promise. The crop is better than it has been for several years.

The annual picnic and reunion of the Wallowa county O. A. C. club will be held next Monday, July 15, in Wallowa lake part.

The date for the meeting of the Eastern Oregon division of the state teachers' association to be held in Enterprise has been changed from October 9-11 to October 16-18.

The grounds around the depot at Enterprise are to be cleared and transformed into park and lawn. Word authorizing this was received from President Farrell Tuesday night.

John L. Burleson has been engaged to teach the winter term in the Pratt school, lower Prairie creek. G. W. Hall will be principal at Lostine and Bessie Wisdom will teach at Promise.

Previous reports, it would appear, have not done justice to the bachelors of Eden. The number was placed at 17. There are 23 marriageable men on the slopes above the Grande Ronde and the Little Salmon rivers in Wallowa county.

Dick Martin's automobile was badly smashed in a collision last Saturday with a heavy wagon driven by Odell Marr, at the upper end of Joseph. Conflicting reports were made on who could lay claim to the right of way. But there was no doubt the auto crashed into the wagon and came off a bad second in the mishap.

Three women were injured Saturday evening by being thrown out of a spring wagon in the Chapman district. Mrs. Mary A. Elmer was most painfully hurt. Her sister, Miss Bessie Woods, and the latter's mother, Mrs. Frank Woods, were the other victims.

The Mazamas, a mountain climbing club of Oregon, expect to come to Wallowa county early in August and climb Eagle Cap, the highest peak in the state. Clyde B. Aitchison of the state railroad commission is a member of the society and divulged its plans when in the county last week.

Later developments in the deal over the S. E. Forsstrom stock of goods in Joseph indicate that the merchandise will be sold shortly. W. S. Bonallie has been appointed receiver, as between Ole Miller, who holds a mortgage signed by Forsstrom and secured on the stock, and Attorney A. W. Schaupp, trustee in bankruptcy for Forsstrom. Bonallie was appointed by the United States court at Portland, which now has jurisdiction in both suits.

Definite arrangements have at last been concluded with Prof. W. H. Boyer for his Wallowa county trip and his opera company will be seen in Enterprise on two nights during August. On Saturday evening, August 10, will be presented Planquette's brilliant opera comique, "The Chimes of Normandy." On the following Thursday evening, August 15th, will be seen the great comic opera by Audran, author of Olivette, "La Mascot."

John F. Patterson narrowly escaped death while working in his sawmill north of Enterprise last Friday. Mr. Patterson was working under the big saw, which was running at slow speed on a loose pulley. It was running with speed enough, however, to cut a fearful gash in Mr. Patterson's face, when he accidentally came in contact with it. As he jerked back, his head struck on a piece of iron and fractured his skull. He was brought in an automobile to the home of his mother, Mrs. Haas, in Enterprise. The attending physician reports he has been doing surprisingly well and has every chance of recovery.

We are making a specialty of crown and bridge work for July and August.
