PERSONALS.

E. A. Wills of Alicel was a Foley guest last night.

District Attorney F. S. Ivanhoe is in Wallowa county today on business.

Mrs. J. C. Gulling returned today from an extended visit in Portland with friends.

Assistant General Manager J. D. Stack was a La Grande visitor today on O.-W. company business.

Miss Maude Chancey of Portland is visiting with Mrs. Rosie McCoy, corner Washington and Second this week.

Miss Alice Hill and Miss Helen Currey returned this morning from a month's sojourn in Portland and at beach resorts.

Jack McLaughlin, traveling freight and passenger agent for the Illinois Central, was in the city today on business. Mr. McLaughlin is one of the men who was shot at Shinko by a negro about three years ago during a wool sale.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hopper have returned from a visit to Arizona where they were the guests of relatives, and a visit at Los Angeles and other California towns. Mrs. Hopper's sister has been ill in Arizona and is now some better.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Jacobson, who was run down and very seriously hurt accidentally by Fred Henning on a motor cycle some few days ago is reported to be out of danger. The other boys also hurt at the same time are practically recovered. The collision occured when the boys ran out from behind an automobile only to be hit by the motor cycle.

"THE OUTCAST."

This Two-Reel Bison Headliner at Sherry's Wednesday and Thursday.

The prologue of this thrilling picture shows the life of a trapper, living in the solitude of the forest. By accident, an Indian girl falls into one of his bear traps, which later is the cause of an uprising and a battle between the Cheyennes and Sioux tribes. The picture comprises a tremendous cast, has splendid panoramic views, and the photography is perfection. This, with a good drama by the Imp company, entitled, "Fanchon, the Cricket," and a Solax comedy entitled "The Great Discovery," showing an old scientist at work perfecting a "child incubator," and how it worked, together with the Elks' official song, "verybody's Doing It," makes an interesting program that will be enjoyed by all, both the young and the older ones. Sherry's is the place where it is cool. Ventilation the best and projection is perfection.
