

TWILIGHTERS MIX TONIGHT

CLERKS AND PALMER MILL TEAMS SLATED.

Game Should Present Many Attractive
Features at 6:30.

Clerks versus Palmer Mill is the feature attraction at the Twilight league grounds tonight and a hummer game it should be. The Clerks are still in the cellar after one game played but they aver they are headed out and tonight will take hold of the Palmer Mill players with a vim. The lumbermen showed pretty good class the last time they were seen in action and there is no reason why they should not make a warm fight for the package men this evening.

The diamond is still in good condition and there will be a game unless 11th hour rains hinder.

Undeclared champs; the "hottest" game of the season; untouchable Will Aubin. Such are a few of the exclamations of joy of a writer from Palmer lumber camp on the Looking Glass, in a letter to the Observer.

"The grand stand was filled to capacity," he writes, and we take it the camps have a grand stand. "The features of the game were the pitching of Will Aubin—of Elgin fame—and the receiving of William Yellowwolf. Our lineup was: Yellowwolf c, Aubin p, Weaver 1b, Young 2b, Fitzpatrick 3b, West cf, Hedicon, cf, Hays rf, Carpenter lf, official ump Heldenrich, scorer Joe Whitby."

La Grande is off this afternoon on her race with Walla Walla. The way the Champs are playing ball, the fans here will be satisfied if we break even and tickled to death if we win the series. With Cannon let out the team is in serious danger should King be disabled. Cannon was not deemed to be good enough with his pegs to hold down the job.

Should Remington be able to get off right with that terrible smoke of his, we win; that is a cinch. The bullet ejector simply eats 'em up Johnson fashion. Then too, that strike-out artist, Fitchner, should win one game this week and of course Melvor will if he is supported so that is three games pretty well doped out. Maybe more! Who can tell? Also, maybe less.

Mountain has won two in a row, a fact not to be overlooked. Peebles.

The undefeated Sumpter team won from Haines Sunday, touching Geddes for five hits, while Haines got six off Peebles.

It is very probable that Haines, with her crack team, will be in La Grande a week from Sunday to play the Moose team. If they do Waldo Geddes will wear a Haines uniform.

"The Fall of Black Hawk."

One of the most wonderful and spectacular pictures ever shown at the Arcade is "The Fall of Black Hawk," to be shown today and Tuesday. This gigantic two reel historical subject as produced by the American company is not to be confused with pictures of this kind shown in the past. It is in a class by itself; the photography is the best; the acting all that could be desired and is a historically accurate, pictorial review of the Black Hawk war. Don't forget that this is not an ordinary two reel feature. Its faithful reproduction of a great Indian war, exciting chases, wonderful swimming feats and delightful love story make it the most extraordinary subject ever offered. At the Arcade, tonight and Tuesday.

CALLED BACK.

The story is one that has provoked many arguments, pro and con, as to what a blind man would be apt to do of the blind youth by James Cruze in under certain conditions, and much this superb picture. praise is due to the skillful rendition. "Called Back" enjoyed a great vogue of popularity about 15 years ago. At that time it was read by nearly everyone, and the work was a topic of conversation wherever people gathered socially. As a work of fiction it has endured long enough to put it in a class of books that will always be any part of it, and it bears right down to the "nub" from the very beginning. Don't forget, "Called Back" will be at Sherry's Monday and Tuesday, the place where it is cool, ventilation is best and projection always good.
