LA GRANDE HAS HITTING STARS

SMITH AND LUTTRELL ARE THE BANNER HITTERS.

Barry, Esola, Also Among Those Hitting High in League.

With "Hap" Smith batting a sensational .507, Chet Luttrell with nearly .400, Barry with over .300, Esola with over .400 and the others going better than .200, it is no wonder that La Grande registers hits against anything in the Tri-State league and has taken a decided spurt of late. The official batting averages for games up to July 14 were announced yesterday by Secretary Keefe of Pendleton and shows La Grande's wonderful hitters are head and shoulders above anything else in the league. Chet Luttrell is the only original, all-season player that hits up in the .300 and better class but the new additions to La Grande have been doing wonders.
The games played since the 14th will materially increase Esola, Smith, and others so that were the averages struck today Smith would no doubt be maintaining his wonderful hitting, even though his time of playing has been lengthened.

Few realized that La Grande was hitting as well as she is, but here is what the official averages give for the entire league:
