cheered to the wild echo by such derate and irreducible fans as Stevenson and W. B. Sargent, the king skeletons, and Lanky Lanum of the postoffice force, William ler, the youthful enthusiast and red rogue from Imbler led the taunted to a fearless battle with slaves of the rolling stock of the west. It's fine to be permitted slip the eternal fetters occasional and get out under the open sky and pop and yell and play in the dirt in "just as when we were kids," these evening diversions are of the best things that ever came the lives of these railway semlings who form such a large proction of the contribution to the and safety of the traveling pub- Though the exercise is for the being somewhat fierce and boissous, yet it is a real rest and literal recreation as well as recreation. for variety of personnel commend to the bankers. The thirteen-inch that stood on the heart of the mond yesterday and hurled death destruction into the awestricken ks of the roaring railroaders was b Williams, that refugee who left Grande and took up his residence in Imbler to count shakels for the ned seraphically and shot again while the victim limped off to a base. It may have been a mistake, but to the swarms of people in the bleachers it looked as if Stites and his catcher had it made up between them that the batsman was to be eliminated for they just pitched and caught as if there was no man between them. Spit balls surely predominated.

Notes.
Gene Good did not look the least bit good when he had to drop the bat and not even make the first base. Charley Harding knows how to take up a collection. Next to Dr. Stevenson, Claude Scranton can make the most noise. Two unofficial backstops were routed early in the game. The good-natured umpire will put some of the charitable remarks of last evening into a new cigar today and destroy their memory forever. Ralston's health food raises fine boys. Two samples played this game one on each side for luck. The official report appears herewith:

COOK IN COMFORT
You'll envy the woman who Cooks With Electricity

She doesn't spend the best part of the day in the kitchen, over a hot stove. Her kitchen is the coolest room in the house. She can cook wherever there is a light socket.

She gets her meals in a jiffy. The electric cooking devices heat up, ready for use, in fifteen seconds. No waste; no fuel to carry; no smoke nor soot; no ashes.

We carry all kinds of electric cooking devices, from the handy little "Radiant Grill" to the most elaborate ranges. We sell them at manufacturers' prices and make a special rate for current for cooking. This special rate makes electric cookers as economical to use as wood or coal ranges.

See the electric cooking devices at our office. We are glad to demonstrate them for you at any time.
