

HEAT DRIVES MANY TO HILLS

HUCKLEBERRY PICKERS REPORT GOOD SUCCESS.

Those Who Stay at Home Swelter in Close Heat, Warmest of Year.

Mountains and fishing streams swarmed with denizens of La Grande yesterday who guessed correctly that Sunday would be a sweltering day. Those who stayed at home went through one of the warmest days of the summer, a sultry close atmosphere resembling a middlewestern starch eliminator.

Huckleberries Suffer Too.
Scores of people flocked to the huckleberry districts and scores of gallons were brought in last night. Prolific crops are reported in all sections where the juicy fruit is yielded. Among the adventurous was E. A. West, who drove his automobile up Fox Hill with a heavy load of people, making the trip with little difficulty.

PIPPINS REST ON WAY EASTWARD

BELIEVED REDUCTION OF EXPENSES WILL COME SOON.

Either Radical Curtailment of Accounts or "Blow" Is Rumor.

Jack Barry brought his Pippins to La Grande today to rest prior to the start to Boise where the present week will see baseball in vogue again. On inside corners it is freely hinted that this is the last trip to Boise as the directors of the Tri-State league meet August 2nd and at that time the proposition of continuing the league will be taken up. If it is sent on to the finish, expenses will have to be cut down. At Walla Walla last week the Pippins didn't get enough gate money to cover hotel expenses. Immediate action is needed.

Captain Al Lodell of the Buckaroos passes a compliment to the Irrigators. The Bucks passed through La Grande this morning on their way home to hook up with the Walla Wallans and Lodell said that Boise has a team now that is much better than anything yet representing the Irrigation city. "The pitching staff is looking good," said Lodell, "and the entire team is going good."

Salva-hall Berger, a man who gained renown last year with Pendleton joins the Bucks today, adding to Garrett's pitching strength materially.

Loosing two in a row and going up against Walla Walla this week is the history of Pendleton. La Grande bumped them and then Boise took four out of six last week. In the meantime La Grande lost a series and won one.

To Wash Silver.
The following mixture is excellent for washing silver: Take equal parts of common yellow soap and whiting. Melt the soap, then add the whiting and make it into a cake. Apply it with a piece of flannel and plenty of warm water, then well rinse and dry, and the silver will not only look beautifully bright, but will not require cleaning so often.

Mock Indian Pudding.
One pint of stale bread, two tablespoonfuls of butter, three and one-half cupfuls of milk and one-half cupful of molasses. Soften the butter and spread on the bread. Pour over the bread three cupfuls of milk and the molasses. Bake one hour. Stir and add the remainder of the milk. Bake one-half hour longer. Serve with cream.

Mustard Ham.
A slice of ham one and a half inches thick, cover with water and boil one hour. Put in baking pan, cover with one tablespoonful of dry mustard and one tablespoonful of sugar. Put in about one cupful of water in which it has been boiled and bake half an hour. The mustard gives the ham a delicious flavor.

Peach Tart.
For each large peach allow one tablespoonful of sugar and one of water. Fill baking dish with sliced peaches, add sugar and water, cover with pie crust and bake in a moderate oven thirty minutes. Serve hot with cream.

"THE HOLY CITY."
Eclair Co. Produces American Passion Play of Great Pictorial Beauty.

A rolling, tumbling, angry sea; blackness on water and sky; a raging storm that you can feel. Gradually, almost imperceptibly, just above the line where ocean and sky meet, a trace of cloud comes into view. Around about it other feathery, fleecy formations appear; the light is gaining. The beholder suddenly realizes that what he supposed were clouds are not. Instead there are the faint outlines of a great city—a white city—on a hill. Then there bursts upon the vision the full splendor of the magically created city. Nothing does it so much resemble as a mirage. Enhancing the illusion is the turbulent sea below the flying wind-blown spray showing clearly in the darkness that rests on the waters.

I saw the Holy City Beside the wireless sea. This magnificent picture at Sherry's Wednesday and Thursday.
