THE HOLY CITY

ECLAIR'S MASTERPIECE ATTRACTION AT SHERBYS.

Founded on the Beautiful American Hymn to Be Seen.

A gorgeous production, correctly costumed, presented by a superb company of actors, requiring months of preparation and work to complete. This is a rare artistic presentation, handling the delicate theme in a masterly and inspiring manner.

The story opens in the study of a minister. The distant strains of "Jerusalem" are borne unto him. He falls asleep and dreams. The scenes that follow pictorially traverse the lines of the song and in places are amplified by the incorporation of some of the more familiar events in the life of the savior, notably where "great multitudes come unto him."

"The Holy City" as a religious production ranks with the best. It shows careful research and even more painstaking execution. The portrayal of the Savior is entrusted to Robert Frazer, and he meets the responsibility put upon him and especially worthy of praise is the work of Alex Francis, who in clerical garb, looks and acts like "God's good man."

REBEKAHS INITIATE.

Seventy Gather at Social Function to Receive Four New Members.

Last evening the Rebekahs held an unusually delightful social meeting. Four new members were initiated and pleasing refreshments were served. This is the regular monthly social event of the Odd Fellows and the Rebekahs.
