HERBST FAMILY REAL ARTISLS

GUILD SOCIETY MEETS WITH ENCOURAGEMENT.
Recital to Be Given Next Week Attracting Much Attention.

Musical circles are centered upon the coming recital by Mr. and Mrs. Herbst, the German grand opera musical stars who are now visiting relatives at Union. The Ladies' Guild is much encouraged at the interest taken and a large audience is forecasted when the stellar musicians step before the admirers on the night of their appearance.

So Many La Grande people know Mrs. Wright Herbst that it is scarcely necessary to dwell on her abilities other than to say she is much improved over her capacities then when heard here the last time about six years ago. Mr. Herbst is a rare artist with the violin and here is what a German paper says of him:
"Coburger Tageblatt, Coburg, Saxony. The soloist of the evening was a former member of our court orchestra concert master, G. Herbst, now of the Grand ducal court theatre in Weimar.

In the first part of the program he played the concerto in D major from Sinding, and in the second part the Beethoven Concerto, both with orchestra accompaniment. His tone possesses a peculiar sweetness and charm, which completely captivates his audience after a few measures. His technique is worthy of great praise. He overcomes the greatest difficulties with wonderful brilliancy while his "Cantilene" gives the impression of great repose in the strong singing tones. The artistic climax, however, was reached in the Beethoven concerto, the cadenza at the close of the first movement giving Mr. Herbst an opportunity to show his extraordinary ability in all its phases.

Vinegar and Spices

Copyright 1910 by E. E. Zimmerman

You might think that there is little to choose between varieties of vinegars, spices and mustards. But there IS and it will surprise you to know that more difference exists between them than amongst grades of meat and brands of flour. So, just as you pick out the best in meat and flour, you should get the very finest in spices and vinegars. All the flavor and pleasure of eating may depend on that choice. It will make the difference between a good meal and a bad one.
Come in and let us advise you. We carry the most varied and best selected stock in town.
