

HERBST RECITAL

A vocalist and violinist from Germany's court circles will be heard at the L. D. S. tabernacle Tuesday evening in a recital of highest caliber. Tickets reasonable in price now on sale. Reserve early and avoid confusion. It will be the stellar event of the musical year in La Grande when Godfrey Herbst and Ina Wright Herbst, late of Union, now of Germany, appear under auspices of the Guild. Express your appreciation of Germany's best talent being brought to your door.

SOCIETY

Wednesday evening Harry Bouvy's home after becoming the returnee of a popular young lady. Mr. Bouvy is in charge of Silverthorn's drug store and will make La Grande his future home.

Last Wednesday evening's Telegram prints the following in its society columns.

Harry Matthew Bouvy and Miss Colla Winona Chambréau were married by Father McDevitt at Sixteenth and Davis streets yesterday evening. Miss Chambréau has been a resident of Portland nearly all of her life, and made her home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Chambréau, at 88 East Fifteenth street. She finished her course at the Washington high school in June of this year and was awarded highest honors. Mr. Bouvy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Bouvy, of Ottawa, Kan. He has made Portland his home during the most of the last two years. He was graduated as a chemist from the University of Michigan in June, 1908. He is a junior in the local medical college. He is in charge of a drug business in La Grande, Ore., where the couple will make their home, after a month's trip through California.

Charles Montgomery, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sprat Montgomery, was married Thursday evening at the home of the bride's parents on South Fourth street, to Miss Nell Bull, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Bull. Only immediate relatives saw Justice of the Peace Arthur C. Williams tie the nuptial knot. The parents of the bride and groom, and Mr. and Mrs. Hasbrouck and son Lyman, Isaac Hill and Mr. and Mrs. Will Rose made up the guest list that sat down to a delicious dinner following the marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery will be at home in South La Grande.

Among the society events of importance during the week was the surprise tendered Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Stevenson by nearly 50 of their friends last night. It was truly a surprise and a pleasant evening was enjoyed by all. Refreshments were served by the lavaders consisting of ice cream and cake.

Mrs. Stevenson and her mother, Mrs. Page, leave Wednesday for an extended visit in the east. Their trip will take them to Schenectady, New York, and in about three months they will return to Portland, Oregon where Dr. Stevenson will be located by that time. The doctor will be in La Grande until the first of September.

A reception was tendered Dr. Lane the newly arrived Presbyterian minister last evening at the residence of Mrs. Turner Oliver. The house was tastefully decorated with sweet peas, nasturtiums, and various kinds of verdure. Light refreshments were served. Dr. Lane is greatly pleased with his new home and especially with the beautiful valley. He had been told that he was likely to find La Grande in the heart of a desert, without trees and the like, and the realization that he has been transplanted to the western garden of Eden has greatly pleased him.

Last Tuesday evening a very delightful party was given by Mrs. Turner Oliver at her home on the corner of Fourth and O streets in honor of Miss Ella Copeland and Miss Alma Lorton who are visiting Miss Marjorie Silverthorne, and Miss Helen Rooser who was leaving the same evening. The plans of the hostess were made for a lawn party, but the rain on that evening forced the games to be transferred to the veranda and the house. There were about thirty present and all enjoyed a happy evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Pattison entertained a few friends at their home on Penna avenue Saturday evening in honor of Fred Pattison and John Tomasene, who left Sunday night for their homes in the east. Those present returned to their homes at a late hour, wishing the two young men a safe journey across the country, and hope that they will return to the beautiful state of Oregon in the near future. Their friends have all regretted their departure.

Members of the Guild who are arranging for the Herbst recital report splendid interest displayed. The tickets were put on sale today at Van Burn's cigar store and that a large audience will be present Tuesday night at the L. D. S. tabernacle is deemed certain. Mr. Herbst and his talented wife, who is Mrs. Ina Wright Herbst, have announced their program for Tuesday evening as follows:

ROBBERS FAIL TO GET COIN

TWO PLACES ON FIR STREET ARE LOOTED.
Small Revolver Only Article Known to Have Been Stolen.

Foiled in efforts to get valuables, robbers nevertheless last night broke into two North Fir street business places and ransacked them with little results. A six-shooter is the only article known to have been taken. The places looted were the Julius Fischer saloon and the Fir street branch of the Grande Ronde Meat company. In the former place the thieves didn't get to the safe and overlooked two dollars in change in the till within easy reach. A revolver was found and purloined, however. Either just before or later, the meat market was broken into and the safe opened, being left unlocked over night, but it was empty of money. The thieves left the meat shop without further disturbances.

PIERCE AT WALLA WALLA.
Hot Lake Politician Spurs Washington Democrats to Action.

Playing the steel trust, the sugar trust, the tobacco trust, the meat trust, the money trust, the harvester trust, and the oil trust; denouncing the work of President Taft and Colonel Roosevelt in their relation to industrial combinations; casting a bomb into the camp of the single tax advocate; praising the Sherman anti-trust law and its framers; and praising Governor Woodrow Wilson as a brave clean and moral man pre-eminently fitted to be made president of the United States, Walter Mr. Pierce, former state senator in Eastern Oregon, last night fired the first broadside in the local campaign for the election of the former university president, says the Walla Walla Union. The occasion was a gathering of democrats in the courthouse for the purpose of organizing a Woodrow Wilson and Thomas R. Marshall campaign club, which started its work with a membership of 52, headed by Ben F. Hill, president, and Rev. Edward Barber, secretary. Mr. Pierce was the principal speaker of the evening.

School Board Meets.
The board of education met last evening. Regular routine work took up the session. Director Day was appointed as a committee of one to examine the central building preparatory to kalsomining the rooms of that building.

No teachers were elected last evening, but there are several more to be decided upon. It is the plan to employ about 35 teachers the coming year.

Murderer Game to the End.
Denver, Aug. 3.—Fighting desperately with a sheriff's posse until he was dropped by a bullet, George Ballow, owner of a stage line who last night entered the dining room of the South Platte hotel at South Platte, Col., 20 miles south and shot and seriously wounded Mrs. Charles Wallbrack, the owner of the hotel, and wounded James McWhorten, a Kansas City tourist, was captured today by the mountains. Ballow is seriously injured.

STRIKE IS ORDERED.
Chicago Street Railway People Demand Walkout or Concession.

Chicago, Aug. 3.—Employees of the Chicago elevator and surface lines to the number of 10,000 today have voted in favor of a strike. It is claimed the men favor the strike ten to one. According to the leaders a tie-up is certain unless the demands of the men are granted.

TURKEY WOULD SETTLE.
Peace Embassies From Italy and Turkey to Meet Shortly Is Belief.

London, Aug. 3.—Dispatches today from Constantinople state that the Turkish government has appointed a commission to discuss peace terms between Italy and Turkey and that a meeting of the emissaries of the two countries will take place at Lausanne in Switzerland.
