Pattison Bros. Grocery

"A young Chicago" was the opinion of a bystander at the depot this morning. Several hundred people were gathered about the depot, three passenger trains coming and going in about 40 minutes, the bell signal system just lately installed, these are the signs that give the tourist an idea of the commercial activity of La Grande. A new depot and a general cleaning up of that part of the city would greatly improve the impression, however.

PERSONALS

Dave Fitzgerald left this morning on a trip into Wallowa county.

J. D. Casey of Hilgard is a visitor in the city today.

Ex-Councilman J. E. Orvis left this morning for a visit into Wallowa county.

Mrs. Walter Zundell, of Lewiston, Idaho, passed through La Grande last night on her way home from a visit with relatives in Wallowa county.

Blocked by an iceberg. Discussing the iceberg question, Professor John Milne of London writes that the year he visited Newfoundland one of these ice mountains had stuck in the Narrows, which is the entrance to St. John's harbor. The capital of Newfoundland was bottled up. "A fort pounded at the intruder for a time, but it might as well have pounded at the Karakoram mountains. The monster stopped all traffic either in or out. On the third day, however, it heeled over and sailed away."

Awful Ignorance. Young Man With Lavender Tie, Pink Shirt and Bright Purple Socks—Say, Jim Lawrence is a queer duck. He pronounces his words so queer! The other day he was telling some girls about going to the Blank inn for a "tabbledote" dinner. As soon as we left the girls I asked him what he meant and come to find out he meant table de horey! Ha, ha, ha!—Chicago Tribune.

Her Discourse. "My dear," wildly expostulated her husband, "I said only half a dozen words and you have talked about them for forty-five minutes." "Well," snapped Mrs. Vick-Senn, "the preacher does that sort of thing every Sunday morning and you never kick about it."—Chicago Tribune.

At Sixes and Sevens. "I married my first husband for money and my second for love." "Then you are very happy now, I suppose?" "No Alas, no! You see, my first husband married me for love and my second for money."

A Special Favor. Customer—I want a ton of coal. Dealer—Yes, sir. What size? Customer—Well, if it's not asking too much, I'd like to have a 2,000 pound ton.—Brooklyn Life

HERBST RECITAL

A vocalist and violinist from Germany's court circles will be heard at the L. D. S. tabernacle Tuesday evening in a recital of highest caliber. Tickets reasonable in price now on sale. Reserve early and avoid confusion. It will be the stellar event of the musical year in La Grande when Godfrey Herbst and Ina Wright Herbst, late of Union, now of Germany, appear under auspices of the Guild. Express your appreciation of Germany's best talent being brought to your door.

ices of the supreme court and the criminal court of appeals and the members of the 1913 legislature are to be nominated in the Oklahoma primaries tomorrow.

The most interest, of course, centers in the contest for the United States senatorship. The senatorial vote is not a direct nomination, but it is an expression of preference supposed to bind the legislature which next winter will name a successor to Robert L. Owen, who is a candidate for re-election.

Former Governor Charles N. Haskell is opposing Senator Owen for the democratic nomination for the senatorship. The fight between the two was commenced as early as last December and has been extremely bitter.

Five republicans are contesting for the republican endorsement for the senatorship. Among them is "Dynamite Ed" Perry of Coalgate, who is regarded as the leader of the Roosevelt faction of the republican party in Oklahoma.

All of the five representatives who now make up the Oklahoma delegation in the lower branch of congress are candidates for renomination. The three new representatives are to be elected as congressmen as large, because of the failure of the legislature to redistrict the state. For the three seats there are a total of 44 aspirants, including 28 democrats, 13 republicans and three socialists.

Republican leaders of both factions are inclined to bury their differences so far as the state campaign is concerned, in the hope that they may be able to elect a majority in one, if not both, houses of the state legislature. Both factions are eager to wrest the state from local control of the democrats, believing this year home affairs are of more importance than getting into a factional fight over national matters that would be helpful to neither Taft or Roosevelt, inasmuch as Oklahoma's electoral vote is practically certain to go to the democratic presidential nominee.
