

TEXAS RANGERS COMING HERE

TENT SHOW PERFORMANCE NEXT WEEK.

Sioux Indian Reservation Story to Be Acted Friday.

The theatre goers of La Grande have a treat in store when "The Texas Ranger" comes in a big tent on Friday, August 16th. This is one of those quiet plays that burn little powder still abounding in heart interest and thrilling climaxes. It tells a beautiful love story of the plains, with just enough comedy to relieve the intensity of the dramatic situations.

The story is told in four acts and the company carry all of their own scenery and stage equipment for the entire production, the plot and scenery of which are laid near the Sioux reservation.

Fred J. Lester, the author, has added but very little fictitious embellishment to the already interesting facts. The costumes which are historically correct are a feature of the performance.

Confederate Memorial Unveiled. Columbus, Miss., Aug. 9:—A handsome monument erected in memory of the Confederate soldiers of Lowndes county was unveiled here today with impressive ceremonies. Governor Brewer of Mississippi delivered the principal oration. The other speakers included Mrs. S. E. F. Rose, president of the Mississippi division of the United Daughters of the Confederacy; Gen. E. T. Sykes, commander of the department of Tennessee of the United Confederate Veterans, and Blewett Lee of Chicago, son of the late Gen. Stephen D. Lee.

EVERYBODY'S DOING IT.

"Doing What?" Why, thinking and talking about Connordale, of course. Pretty soon the 56 lots that still remain unsold will be gone and more than 200 people will be getting ready to take advantage of our building offer. And those who have delayed taking action will be disappointed. That is the experience of all who fail to take advantage of a good opportunity when it is presented to them.

You may say, "Why, I knew that piece of property when it was a vacant field, and I could have bought it for a song." If that is true you also can probably look back upon the time—nto so very long ago—when La Grande was a village. But La Grande is now a full-fledged young city with the second greatest pay-roll in the state, and with miles of paved streets and other city improvements. And Connordale is the best located and choicest bit of fully-improved and restricted residence property on the market. And La Grande is going to keep on growing and improving, while those who stand idly by and criticize the price of property and belittle the necessity for improvements and lead the calamity chorus will be left at the post as usual.

These are FACTS—straight from the shoulder—and every fair-minded progressive resident of La Grande knows that they are true. If you haven't seen Connordale yet, let us take you down in an automobile and show it to you.
