DR. HOLT TO LOCATE HERE

NATIONAL GUARD SURGEON HIES TO LA GRANDE.

House Surgeon at St Vincents for a Time—Locates With Molitor.

Dr. R. E. L. Holt, a physician and surgeon of Portland, has associated himself with Dr. N. Molitor and will hereafter make La Grande his permanent home. Dr. Holt was for some time associated with Dr. Parker in Portland and was also house surgeon at St. Vincent's hospital. He was captain and surgeon of the Oregon National Guard until recently.

He is hardly a stranger to the Grande Ronde valley for he married the only daughter of Charles Goodenough, who for many years was a merchant at Island City and one of the foremost men of Union county.

Dr. Molitor and Dr. Holt will office together in the Roesch building at the corner of Depot and Adams.

been seeking to profit by Lorimer's support, so long as they believed it would be useful, and then turned against him. Certain New England senators, I regret to say, who took the lead in conducting the campaign in defense of Lorimer helped to put through a steal of the republican nomination in Chicago."

Next Monday night Roosevelt Progressives will form local clubs at Union, Cove and Imbler. Prime movers in these three localities have telephoned and written to Chairman Geddes of the La Grande club, asking for organizing forces on that night, and La Grande will send an automobile load of Roosevelt boosters to each of the three towns.

Halls have been provided in each place and the Roosevelt people in each of the three localities predict much interest in each of the sections. They are all anxious to have their clubs formed and put into working order.

Wilson Receives State Friends.

Sea Girt, N. J., Aug. 17.—Gov. Wilson held "open house" today for resident of New Jersey. Hundreds visited the house to shake Wilson by the hand, and hundred of women visitors joined the Wilson and Marshall league of New Jersey.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS FORM.

District About Elgin Being Well Organized Into Districts.

Elgin's rural sections are rapidly being cemented with well-formed Sunday school organizations. During the past week or two, R. E. Close, the Sunday school organizer, has formed two new Sunday schools—one in the Indian creek district with George Scott as superintendent and one in the Highland district with Oscar Benshadler as superintendent. At the latter place an orchestra to supply music at the regular sessions of the school has been organized. Tomorrow Mr. Close will hold an organization meeting in the Hindmand section.

POLITICS AND POLITICIANS

Miss Helen Dougherty of Providence is the first woman to run for state office in Rhode Island. She has been nominated by the socialists for secretary of state at the November election.

The Dorchester Historical Society of Boston has been presented with a banner which was carried by the adherents of Henry Clay through the New England states at the time Mr. Clay was a candidate for president. It is thought to be the only one in existence.

Frank H. Funk, who has been nominated by the Progressive party in Illinois for governor, is a practical farmer. He operates a farm of more than 2,000 acres in McLean county, nearly all of which is under high cultivation. Mr. Funk graduated from Yale university in 1891. During his college days he was celebrated as a football player, being left tackle on the famous Yale team of 1890.

Special Train of Seashore Excursionists on August 21st.

Have you made arrangements to go on the excursion to North Beach, August 21st? If not, call on Agent J. H. Keeney and get full particulars so that proper equipment can be provided to handle the crowd which is going from Baker, Haines, North Powder, Union, Joseph, Enterprise, Wallowa, Lostine, La Grande, Imbler and Elgin.

The O.-W. R. & N. special train will leave La Grande on August 21st at 8:00 p. m. arriving at Portland August 22nd at 6:30 a. m. Excursionists may leave Portland for the Beach on the day of their arrival, or stop over in Portland going until August 23rd, and on return trip up to September 5th. Those who desire to go right on to the Beach can take the steamer "Hassalo" which leaves Portland Ash street dock at 8 a. m., arriving at the Beach after a few pleasant hours. Or they can leave on the steamer, "T. J. Potter," the evening of their arrival at 10:30 p. m., arriving at the Beach early the next morning.

The boats are equipped with excellent restaurant service, and the river trip alone is worth the price of the ticket. 8-17-19-20
