A Farm Among Farms

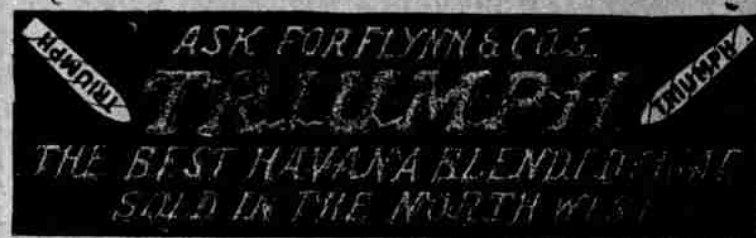

The Silas Koger farm of 240 acres, one of the best money makers in the county, just three miles north of Cove. 240 acres under high cultivation, 80 acres of timber and grazing land. Good house and good barn. Well watered, 40 acres in alfalfa, as much more in timothy, family orchard. Beautiful view of the valley. Ask any of the Cove people what kind of a farm this is and they will tell you. Very easy terms. Come in and let me show you a photograph and then you will want to see the farm.

Here Is a Bargain

80 acres three miles west of Summerville, two fine springs sufficient to irrigate ten or twenty acres of alfalfa, fine orchard, good barn and fair house. The price will appeal to those wanting a small farm that is especially adapted to dairy, hogs, poultry and fruit. Quite a lot of strawberries, raspberries, grapes and other vines on the place. Call and get particulars.
