What is home without a mother? That's true, mother comes first, then comes La Grande Milling company's Blue Stem flour. This combination surely makes a home happy. To the few who are not using this flour, ask any grocer in La Grande about this dear package, and you will get from him a guarantee bigger than the package is. You may say to yourself, which store handles it? The grocer who does not sell Blue Stem flour don't keep tea and coffee. "La Grande Milling Co." is stamped on each sack. If it wasn't good our name would not show up on the package.

WHEN WOMEN VOTE.
In these days when equal suffrage is a very "live" issue, every one is much interested in the cause and effect "The Suffragette Sheriff" deals with the day when women shall hold offices, as well as vote. Rattlesnake Bill is inclined to be lazy, much to the disgust of his wife. His old maid sister, an ancient suffragette, visits them, and things immediately begin to happen. Bill's wife runs for sheriff and is elected and the fun then starts. If one can judge from the laughter that issued from the Elite last night, the picture is a howling success. Goodwin, with the aid of motion pictures and will be seen 2800 N. N. tures, and will be shown at the Arcade theatre two days only, Friday and Saturday.
