

UNION COUNTY FAIR ASSOCIATION

Exhibits in all departments will be received for entry Monday, Sept. 9th. The State and County officials have made liberal appropriations of money to be paid only in premiums on exhibits and we want to see EVERY DOLLAR of it paid to the people of our county, so you, Mr. Producer, can share in this distribution of cash if you will.

The premiums offered this year are larger than ever before, and the judges in every department will be competent, fair and disinterested.

A large new exhibit hall has been built for agricultural, horticultural and floral exhibits and the accommodations for stock will be first class in every respect.

This fair is being conducted for the benefit of ALL the people of Union County, and you, in assisting as outlined above, will be promoting your own best interests.

We trust you will begin NOW to prepare exhibits in some of the departments, to help in making the UNION COUNTY FAIR "THE BIGGEST AND BEST FAIR IN EASTERN OREGON."

ATTRACTIVE BACK YARDS PART OF REQUIREMENTS IN ANNUAL ASTER SHOW

La Grande's aster show is to be held September 11 in conjunction with the Union county fair—unless Jack Frost gets into the game and puts the top on La Grande's asters a little earlier than he did Thursday night. Preparations including the prizes and classification of entries, have been made into by a committee of the Civic Association and introduces a new feature into the yard contest features this year. Those who enter in the yard display for asters must have their back yards reckoned with also. It will not suffice that the asters be great profuse or anything else that makes them pretty but the yard must be in inspection order. Of course a yard and front, cannot enter into this competition without having in it some asters, but asters are not to play the role.

Judges have been selected and are in charge of the yard display will make their tour of inspection on the 10th so that asters can be plucked that day and entered at the pavilion the next day.

Even at this early date those who enter the yard contests should list themselves with Mrs. A. B. Cherry or Mrs. M. K. Hall who have this feature in hand. The show proper will be held at the new pavilion and will be made up of the following classifications, with the prizes as appended:

- Best Yard Display
- First prize $3.00.
 - Second prize $2.00.
 - Third prize $1.00.
- The Show Proper Contests.
- For the largest and best display at the show:
- First prize $5.00.
 - Second prize $3.00.
 - Third prize $2.00.
- For largest and best display of pur-

- ple asters:
- First prize $2.00
 - Second prize $1.00.
 - Third prize $.50.
- For same conditions for Pink asters:
- First prize $2.00.
 - Second prize $1.00.
 - Third prize $.50.
- For same event for white asters:
- First prize $2.00.
 - Second prize $1.00.
 - Third prize $.50.
- Same event for Lavender asters:
- First prize $2.00.
