SCHOOL BEGINS WITH RECORD

1003 ENTER FIRST DAY, INCREASE OF 74 OVER LAST YEAR.

197 Register in High School Courses, a Substantial Gain.

Yesterday afternoon closed the first week of school in La Grande for the school year of 1912-13. The registration on the first day which has been slightly increased since was 74 in advance of last years record. The school statistics are one of the many things that tell of La Grande's substantial growth. Each year for years has seen the enrollment steadily increase until this year when the total enrollment will undoubtedly reach the 1200 mark.

One hundred and ninety-seven, enrolled in the high school last Monday. This is by far the largest number at the beginning of a year that has ever entered the local high schools. Next week will mark an influx of new students, many staying out the first week to help in the harvest, to attend the county fair, and many other causes.
