A Letter.

In answer to a letter sent by your general secretary, Mr. O. L. Ferris, President of the Columbia Trust Company, writes as follows under date of September 10, 1912.

Dear Sir: "I believe the greatest value of the Y. M. C. A. in Portland is to be found in its unselfish and untiring efforts to make the young man stranger feel at home by providing him with healthy amusement, opportunities for self advancement, ready employment and Christian association. Many a young man owes his present well being in this city to his contact with the Y. M. C. A. early after his arrival here. His thoughts have been turned to home and mother and as a consequence he gives a wide berth to evil companions and influences.

"Every town needs a Y. M. C. A. if for no other reason, as an insurance of its young manhood."

Very truly,

(Signed) O. L. Ferris.

Gymnasium.

Arrangements have been made whereby the Association has the use of the Skating rink, which is at present under the management of Mr. Bean, for three afternoons and evenings each week beginning Oct. 1, 1912. Before that time a schedule of classes will be arranged and a basis of membership decided upon by the board. As the work of the gymnasium is rather new to the majority of the men and boys of this city, your secretary is very anxious to get in touch with any who have had previous experience on the gymnasium floor. We shall need your assistance in carrying on this part of the work.
