Ladd Canyon News Items.

Ladd Canyon, Sept. 27.—Special:—Mrs. Lucy Graham returned home from North Powder Wednesday, where she went the day before to attend the funeral of her brother-in-law, Oscar Denning, who was a pioneer of that place.

Nell McClure is attending the big Round-up at Pendleton. A few more will possibly attend tomorrow.

Henry Scott and wife, who used to own a farm above Old Town, about twenty years ago, arrived here from Grants Pass last Tuesday and visited a couple of days with Mr. Scott's niece, Mrs. Frank Counsell. They departed a lovely home in Grants Pass for a place more suitable for Mrs. Scott, as she is in very poor health. They will probably make their home in La Grande once more. Mr. Scott first came to this valley in 1866.

Grain Dealers Meet at Norfolk.

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 1.—The annual convention of the National Grain Dealers' association met here today for a three days' session. In connection with the meeting the Chief Grain Inspectors' National association is holding its annual session.

The armory of the Agricultural college at Corvallis has been converted into a vast auditorium seating 6000 people, and they will be seated in Made-in-Oregon chairs, according to the tenor of a resolution adopted by the board of regents.

PROGRAM FOR CON. FINISHED

TEACHERS TO HEAR WELL-KNOWN EDUCATORS.

Trip To Wallowa Lake Is One of Features of Entertainment.

Stages are set for the big convention of the Eastern Oregon division of the Oregon State Teachers' association to be held at Enterprise, October 16, 17 and 18. County School Superintendent E. E. Bragg of this county, is now notifying the members of the association relative to the rates, instructions to them about reservation of accommodations and inclosing a copy of the general and department program.

This will be the first time that the association has gone into Wallowa county, and as a trip to Joseph Lake is on the program for Friday afternoon, a great many teachers will combine business with pleasure. A peculiar thing about these conventions—and probably the only incident of its kind in convention history—is that attendance is required and that the teaching license can be removed and abrogated as it were if the teacher fails to report at the convention. The general program for the three days is:

Wednesday, October 16.

9:00—Opening exercises.

9:10—Address—L. R. Alderman, state superintendent of public instruction.

10:00—Music.
