HUNTINGTON WANTS WOODS

FORMER JUSTICE WANTED RE-APPOINTMENT.

County Court of Baker Asked to Return Deposed Justice to Power.

A petition with 67 signatures on it was presented to the county court this morning for the reappointment of Justice of the Peace W. J. Woods for the Huntington precinct at the opening of the October session of the county court, says the Baker Herald. The petition contains the names of many of the business men of the town, and may bear some weight with the county court. It is not known yet whether it will be granted by the court as the commissioners do not expect to consider it till the latter part of the week.

There is a probability that the governor would act as he did before in the case of Mr. Woods and order him to resign.

Frederick Perry has been engaged for the company which will support Mrs. Flske in "The Right Road."

A new comedy by James Forbes, entitled "A Rich Man's Son," will be produced in Atlantic City this month.

Wilkie Bard, a favorite in the London music halls, has arranged to make his debut in the United States in December.

Stella Chatelaine, an American dancer, who recently made a hit in Paris, has just been engaged for the Ziegfeld Follies.
