A common heating stove was a necessary evil, though an expensive one. Today things have changed. The Howard heating stove solves the problem of waste fuel. The "DUPLIX DRAFT" does it.

BIG BANQUET HELD TO ENTHUSE YOUNG PEOPLE.

One of the Biggest Meetings of Its Kind Held Monday.

Of intense significance as a reflection of the public sentiment in regard to woman suffrage was the banquet given at the Hotel Pendleton last night by the Political Equality League, says a Pendleton paper. It showed that the representative men and women of Umatilla county not only favor votes for women, but are enthusiastic workers for Amendment No. 1, which is to be voted upon at the election Nov. 5.

The gathering was remarkable because of the presence of the leaders of every political belief. The toasts included speeches by representatives of every political party except the Socialist party. The explanation was made after the banquet that the Socialists were omitted because Dr. M. V. Turley of Hermiston was unable to appear. It was noticeable however, that special effort was made to secure substitute speakers for other parties. Ad. Nye spoke in behalf of the Democratic party, in the absence of Dr. C. J. Smith.

The Socialists, however, said they did not mind the apparent oversight, inasmuch as their party has openly espoused the cause of woman suffrage ever since it was born and has advocated its adoption in planks in the national platform of the party in every civilized nation on the globe so that the attitude of the party on this question is so well known that it needs no rehearsal at a public function.

Rev. Nathan Evans, speaking for the Prohibition party, and Dr. I. U. Temple, spokesman for the Progressive party, "had the edge" on the representatives of the Republican and Democratic parties and evidently enjoyed the advantage of being able to point to actual evidence of good faith in the suffrage planks in their respective platforms.

Fo President-- Theodore Roosevelt For Vice President-- Hiram Johnson

THE RIGHTEOUS ROOSEVELT

(Atlanta Constitution.)

Mr. Roosevelt will stand out, as intimated by the Washington Post as a president in many respects unprecedented. His achievement is not marred by one broken pledge. His biographers, to date, are unable to find a single instance in which he employed wild promises to smooth his pathway to office. Always he has striven at genuine evils and sought to effect genuine reforms. No conscious or inadvertent hypocrisy cumber his good name or shadows his political future.

As much, sadly, cannot be said for some dozens of demagogues, who, as the Post saliently points out, have left a trail of ruin in their wake by attempting to imitate Roosevelt, but with cheapness and wretched judgment and palpable insincerity.

Roosevelt goes back to private life, a man honored and respected and acclaimed by all civilization.

Without Roosevelt's acumen or honesty, they endeavored to emulate his methods and his success. They had sufficient common shrewdness to sense the marvelous manner in which his brand of righteousness had laid hold on the popular heart. Lacking his sincerity, lacking his grasp of details and generalities, lacking his supreme good sense and his cardinal honesty, they gave endless promissory notes to be redeemed in impossible performances.

The man with this record of accomplishments is today the Presidential Candidate of the Progressive Party--THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

President Taft Does Not Indorse the Work of Harlan and Bede Who Spoke Here.

It will be remembered that when Theodore Roosevelt was here during the fair a special train conveying Harlan and Bede followed and these gentlemen talked on the street following Roosevelt's speech. The matter was dropped there until the last few days when President Taft has taken the matter up and had Mr. Hilles, his campaign manager, issue the following letter:

To Theodore Roosevelt:
President Taft has instructed me to inform you that under no circumstances will he allow those who campaign in his behalf to indulge in false accusation concerning your personal morals, temperance or probity. He begs me to say that he has telegraphed today to J. Adam Bede and John Marshall Harlan, the short-weight son of the late lamented and honored justice of the supreme court, to cease their campaign of abuse on the stump. Further than this he desires at this late date, but in some fitting manner, to acknowledge that your statement in regard to accepting another term was made by you only when it was necessary on that occasion to insure Mr. Taft's nomination in 1908. The president believes that he has been ill-advised during his administration by Crane, Guggenheim, Aldrich, Cannon and Barnes, and that there can be no hope of his success unless he takes the reins in his hands and acts according to his own natural, honorable inclinations.

CHARLES P. HILLES,
Campaign Manager.
