RADIANT GRILLS

We are enthusiastic about the Electric Radiant Grill. You will be too, when you see it in operation. There is a fascination about electric cooking.

While the electric grill does not take the place of a kitchen range, you can do all your light cooking on it; breakfasts, lunches, etc. This convenient little cooking device operates anywhere there's a light socket, at any hour of the day or night. Think what that means in the sick-room or nursery, or when you are in a hurry. The Electric Radiant Grill costs but little. Ask for free demonstration in your own home.—Main 34.

ENTERPRISE, WALLOWA AND JOSEPH REPRESENTED.

Sub-District League Meeting Held at Joseph This Week.

(By Carl G. Grill, (R. M. S.)

In these days of commercialism, graft and political corruption it is refreshing to note the scope the young people's movement is taking for righteousness and good government. Especially is this true of the Christian Endeavor movement and of the Epworth League of the M. E. church. Time was when church members of the old school could not be induced to enter the threshold of another denomination. But things are changed. Denominational lines and party lines in politics count for little in these days.

The first sub-district meeting of the Wallowa district of the Epworth league of the Methodist Episcopal church was held Oct. 6th at Joseph and was well attended by delegations from Enterprise and Wallowa—the white and red ribbons being much in evidence. The Enterprise delegation was led by Rev. B. F. Meredith, while that from Wallowa was headed by Rev. A. W. James.

The following program was rendered:

4 p. m.—Devotional, led by Rev. B. F. Meredith.

4:15—Address of Welcome by Rottien Dickerson of Joseph.

4:35—Addresses.

5:10—Duet—Revs. Meredith and and Miller.

5:20—The Relation of the Epworth League; first, to its members, by Rev. B. F. Meredith; second, to the young people of the community, by Rev. A. W. James; third, to the pastor by Rev. J. W. Miller of the local church.

6:00 p. m.—Dinner.

7:00 p. m.—Meeting of the Epworth League, led by C. H. Rudd of Joseph.

8:00—Special music by the choir and sermon by Rev. A. W. James of Wallowa.

In speaking on the relation of the Epworth League to its members Rev. Meredith said among other things that it should be: first, recreating; second it should be informing; third, reforming; and fourth, it should be transforming.

The subject of consideration at the 7:00 o'clock meeting was that of Conservation and the relation between economic and moral forces, and was ably led by Mr. Rudd.

Rev. James text for the evening sermon was: Will Ye Also Go Away? To Whom Shall We Turn?

The spread that was served sustained the Joseph chapter's reputation as a host.

Cardinal Merry del Val.
Cardinal Merry del Val, the Papal secretary of state, was born October 10, 1865, in London, where his father was secretary of the Spanish embassy. He was educated at the famous Stonyhurst college, the Jesuit institution near London. In his youth he became acquainted with Cardinal Rampolla, when the latter was papal nuncio at Madrid, and became his protege. In 1893 Del Val was appointed master to the robes to Pope Leo XIII, and thereafter his advancement was very rapid. In 1896 he was sent to Canada to settle the dispute over what was known as the Manitoba school question. The next year he was sent to London as a special legate to represent the Holy See at the diamond jubilee of Queen Victoria. Since 1903 the cardinal has been secretary of state, a position demanding great tact and executive ability. In his official position he has nothing to do with spiritual matters. In fact, Cardinal Merry del Val has never taken priestly orders, though he is renowned as an eloquent pulpit orator.
