BRAN, BARLEY, FALL SLOWLY

SLIGHT DECLINE IN PRICES IS NOTED TODAY.

On the Whole All Commodities Remain Firm With Little Change

Bearish trait in bran rolled barley and wild hay prices have been the tendencies during the past few days, and slight drops have been the result. But the bear movement has been confined to only a few commodities and unchanged demands and supplies have left oats, alfalfa, timothy and other feeds unaltered. The various flour grades have been likewise left untempered by changes, and, like the prevailing rule in all lines of marketing in La Grande the past week, no change in prices is noted.

B. ELMER KENNEDY

is the man to vote for. He is running for Secretary of State. A vote for him means a vote for an Eastern Oregon boy; it also means a vote against the Salem ring which has been spending the taxpayers' money freely. Kennedy will keep down state taxes.
