An assorted carload of Kentucky liquors of the best brands, has been received by Ulrich Lottes, and he is now ready to quote lowest wholesale prices. This is also the first carload of liquors received in La Grande by a local dealer and adds to the list of articles and commodities that are handled in La Grande as a distributing station in wholesale quantities. The wholesale houses of La Grande are now recognized as good business ventures for the investors as, aside from being the metropolis of Eastern Oregon, the geographical location is such as expedites smaller shipments to any section of the Eastern part of the state from La Grande.
