Judge Knowles has notified attorneys and litigants that he objects strenuously to having jury trials in cases where the sum involved is trivial, and in this he shows good sense. Just why the people should be saddled with the expense of hearing every little jim-crow case that is thrown into the circuit court is a mystery, and in his conclusion Judge Knowles is dead right.—Union Republican.

"THE EQUINE SPY"

Two Reel Film on the Boards for Tonight and Tomorrow.

A big two-reel feature is "The Equine Spy," at the Arcade tonight, featuring Don, the most intelligent horse in the world. The horse with a million dollar reputation. Featured in that remarkable two reel production—the production in which Don demonstrates that he is more human than some humans.

A story which the critics lauded to the skies. They say it is remarkable for its action, incidents and sustaining interest. At the Arcade tonight and Saturday. Also the ventriloquial act of Chas. E. Colby & Co. at the Arcade theatre is fine. Mr. Colby is a complete master of the art and his comedy is clean, good and refined. The large crowd last evening was more than pleased and Mr. Colby was given encore after encore.

Since the announcement that the farmers of this country have nine billion dollars to spend this year, a good many boys who left the farms some time ago are making arrangements to get back to the soil—long enough to "touch" the old man for a bit of his profits.

Who Shall Fill the PRESCRIPTION ?

It is essential that your prescriptions have every bit of the potency that the physician relies upon or else results will be disappointing.

To insure this, drugs must be fresh, pure, active and must be properly compounded. Our trade is very large which insures rapid selling and, hence, freshness.

We have the drugs called for. All prescriptions are compounded by registered pharmacists and the price is always reasonable.
