New Directory.

As we intend bringing out a new directory in the near future we take this opportunity to ask our subscribers to aid us in making it a correct and efficient one. This can be done on their part by notifying us of any mistakes in their names initials, addresses or numbers in the present directory or of any changes they may wish made. Subscribers who contemplate changing their present address within the next two months would find it to their advantage to let us know so that their new location may be listed in the new directory.

GRILL SERVICE ELECTION NIGHT

Hear the Returns While Enjoying Your Late Dinner.

The Foley Grill has decided to give election returns in such a manner that every patron of the grill may have the benefit of those returns while he eats and enjoys himself.
Tuesday night the Grill will be open ple who fill the hotel lobby desire as long as the large crowd of neo-refreshments. Be one of the number who enjoys the best service ever given in La Grande on election night.

A vigorous policy of agitation for state ownership of British mines was announced by President Robt. Smiles at the annual meeting of the Miners' Federation of the United Kingdom.

After an exhaustive investigation of the United States labor bureau has concluded that $900 a year is the lowest wage on which an American workman can support a family and maintain his efficiency as a worker.

Bohnenkamp's Ran Longest.
Pendleton's gains were so many and consistent that a flash of La Grande speed was doubly pleasant.
Sluder reeled off 10 yards over six would-be tacklers but lost the ball when knocked down. Bohnenkamp too, running with mighty force, got through the line and went to the secondary defense at various times with electrifying effect.
