an offertory solo both morning and evening. Archdeacon Webber, the senior missionary will not be here until Monday evening when he will make his first address. There will be no 5 o'clock services on Sunday during the mission. Everybody is cordially invited to attend and be benefited.

The following is an appreciation of Archdeacon Webber, kindly furnished by my friend and Brother the Reverend Dr. Fyke, pastor of the First Methodist church here.

UPTON H. GIBBS.
It gives me keen pleasure to say a word of commendation regarding Archdeacon Webber who is to hold a mission at the Episcopal church beginning next Sunday. It is exceptionally fortunate for the people of La Grande, that my friend and Brother, the Rev. Mr. Gibbs, could secure such an effective man for this work. Mr. Webber is a man of unusual personality, and his message, like himself, rings true. His loyalty to the truth as he sees it, is admirable. He is a Churchman, it is true, but above and beyond this, he is first a splendid, consecration Christian gentleman. His addresses are of the practical nature; but delivered in a way to grip the hearts of men and women; dead indeed must be the heart that under his ministry does not feel impulses toward the better life. It was my pleasure to hear him in Boise, Idaho, and I am anticipating with pleasure his coming to La Grande.
