Flagged Train With Shirt.

Tearing his shirt from his back an Ohio man flagged a train and saved it from a wreck, but H. T. Alston, Raleigh, N. C. once prevented a wreck with Electric Bitters. "I was in a terrible plight when I began to use them," he writes, "my stomach, head back and kidneys were all badly affected and my liver was in a bad condition but four bottles of Electric Bitters made me feel like a new man." A trial will convince you of their matchless merit for any stomach, liver or kidney trouble. Price 50 cents at all drug stores.

LADD CANYON FOLKS WEDDED

Ladd Canyon, November 8.—(Special)—Alec Furgason, one of the very best known young men in Union county, signed a lifecontract on Wednesday by A. C. Williams when he was united in marriage at the home of his sister, Mrs. Frank McClure, at four o'clock to Miss Kitty Mulholland. The happy couple after the wedding dance this evening in the hall at Linebarger's park, will reside at Island City for a while at least. Ladd Canyon is preparing to turn out enmasse in honor of the event.

The groom is the eldest son of Lee J. Furgason of Elgin and his bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Mulholland of this place. Both the bride and groom were raised in this valley. No two young people could be better united to each other's environments and in taking the sacred vows of marriage they acted wisely. Here's wishing the best of luck to Mr. and Mrs. Furgason.
