The soldiers on the frontiers of an early day had to contend with. The whole picture is very exciting, being full of action, the third reel being given over to the reproduction of the last stand of Custer and his men and it is without a doubt the greatest battle scene ever attempted and carried out in motion pictures. This two reel film is produced by a capable company from a scenario by a man who has made a study of the question of prison reform. Do you snuggle a little deeper in the covers and wish with all your might that you didn't have to get up in the cold to dress? Well, you're not the only one. There never was but one man in La Grande who liked to get up in the cold, and he moved away.
