IMBLER TO THE FRONT.

With her usual activity and strong desire to let the people know a few things about the Grande Ronde apple country Imbler has decided to claim space at the Portland Land show and will there put out an exhibit of fruit which will cause the Hood River and Rogue River mountaineers to prick up their ears. Arrangements have been completed for 200 square feet of floor space in which will be shown some of the extra fancy fruit of the valley. It will be under the name of "Imbler-Allice" fruit district.

This is a move in the right way. It will do a lot of good for the entire valley and that Imbler people should take the initiative is decidedly to their credit.

MISS ROBINSON CRUSOE

ARCADE THEATRE HAS AN EXCELLENT.

Two-Reel Film on the Boards Tonight and Tomorrow.

"Miss Robinson Crusoe," in two reels and produced by the Thanhouser company is the headliner at the Arcade theatre for tonight and tomorrow. This film has been named the picture "most beautiful," the manufacturers claiming that it is even more beautiful than their great success, "Undine." It is a very delightful and romantic story of the sea. Miss Flo LaBadie and Mr. Cruze play the leads, as two young people of great wealth. The girl is shipwrecked and cast upon an island inhabited by cannibals who think her a goddess and worship her. They have reason to think so. Her handling of a huge rattlesnake makes a most startling scene. The simple islanders, as well as the audience, see this and the audience is sure to sympathize with them in their opinion of her. She is rescued by the man who, in his big yacht, seeks her out and saves her in a well-conducted battle scene—five white men against a horde of cannibals. In many of its scenes, it is a highly artistic picture and, where it fails to be so, it is nevertheless effective, and makes a very desirable offering.
