

SHERRY'S

THE HOUSE OF COMFORT.

"THE FONDLING."
This story was written by Harry Furniss and taken in England. Featuring Marc McDermott and Miss Nesbit.

"MAX FIGHTS A DUEL"
Max, our old friend, is widely popular and deservingly so. A fine offering. G. C. P. C.

"THE ISLES OF THE WILD"
This picture will more than please; it will astonish. A BIOGRAPH.

"THE VALLEY OF CHEYFUSE FRANCE."
A beautiful hand painted scenic. G. C. P. C.

"THE HAYES SISTERS"
"BUNNY AT SEA."

We have waited with much interest the appearance of this picture, the first of the "Bunny Abroad" pictures taken on his way to England. "It's a good one."

NOTICE—By request of a large number of patrons the Hayes Sisters will put on tonight only in addition to their regular change, the Harem Skarem Glide.

Famous "Bunty" last shoe for women and misses at West's.

No, simply because the railroad station received a fresh coat of paint this fall, it does not follow that there will be no new station erected here in the near future.

HEACOCK HAS MOVED to the new Foley building. Rooms 34 and 35.

Speakers of stock salesmen, they must all take off their hats to Ellis Kirtley, Joe Carr and Herman Selgrist.

The Pattersons, in a complete change of vaudeville at the Arcade tonight.

Paying of election bets is going merrily on. About the most unique transaction along this line was the bet of J. D. McKennon wherein five bags of potatoes and five boxes of apples were bet on general results of the recent election. Potatoes and apples.

Pat Foley should name his two pet bears "Jeff and Mutt" and then watch proceedings. Few animals have attracted so much attention as have these bears and in all probability Pat will have one of them at the steering wheel of his new 55-horse power Apperson in a few days.

TONIGHT AT SHERRY'S — THE HAYES SISTERS, DAINY SINGING AND DANCING SOUBRETTEES.

This is one year when the people are "elected" to death. The secret orders will be so delightfully tired of electing officers in state and nation and city that very likely many of them will dispense with their annual office-filling proceedings the first of the year.

Declare War on Colds.

A crusade of education which aims that common colds may become uncommon within the next generation has been begun by prominent New York physicians. Here is a list of the "don'ts" which he doctors say will prevent the annual visitation of the cold:

"Don't sit in a draughty car."
"Don't sleep in hot rooms."
"Don't avoid fresh air."
"Don't stuff yourself at meal time Over eating reduces your resistance." To which we would add—when you take a cold get rid of it as quickly as possible. To accomplish that you will find Chamberlain's Cough Remedy most excellent. Sold by all druggists

A Night of Terror.

Few nights are more terrible than that of a mother looking on her child choking and gasping for breath during an attack of croup, and nothing in the house to relieve it. Many mothers have passed night of terror in this situation. A little forethought will enable you to avoid all this. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a certain cure for croup and has never been known to fail. Keep it at hand. For sale by all dealers.
