PERSONALS

G. G. Stackland of Cove left this morning for Utah points to transact business matters.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Richardson have returned from an extended tour of the Midwest. They visited with relatives South of Chicago and in Chicago, and report a delightful trip.

O. P. Pratt, a Union merchant, accompanied by his wife, B. J. Erlsland, a Union school teacher and wife, Miss Etta Shelton, Jessie Mc Masters, a rancher, Clarence Potter, a popcorn dealer and George Scribner, the Union editor, made up a party of Union people visiting in the city today.

Dr. Webber-Thompson left on No. 17 for Pendleton to open the mission at the Church of the Redeemer in that place. He carries with him the love and gratitude of St. Peter's parish for what he did for the children.

Miss Hattie Hume of Winnipeg, is the guest of her brother, A. P. Hume.

Joseph Gibson Dead.

Montgomery, Ala., Nov. 16.—Lieutenant-Colonel Joseph Gibson, leader of the troops slaying John Brown, died on a plantation at Verbena, near here today.

Protect Children of Mismatched Couples. Cedar Rapids, Ia., Nov. 16.—The advisability of having juvenile officers especially delegated to look after the interests of children whose parents are engaged in divorce proceedings is one of the live questions that will be considered at the annual meeting here of the Iowa State Conference of Charities and Correction. The loan shark evil and various problems relating to child labor, prison conditions, the care of the defective and dependent, and sanitation and public health also will receive attention. Many delegates to the conference arrived in the city today. The program will begin with special church services tomorrow and the business sessions will occupy the three following days.

Robert W. Herter, Lawrenceville, Mo., who had been bothered with kidney trouble for two years, says: "I tried three different kinds of kidney pills but with no relief. My neighbor told me to use Foley Kidney Pills. I took three bottles of them, and got a permanent cure. I recommend them to everybody." Fay

BERNHARDT AT ARCADE

MONDAY NIGHT PROGRAM AT ARCADE CONTAINS FEATURE.

World's Greatest Actress in Two Film Production One Night Only.

The management of the Arcade theatre announces that they have secured Sarah Bernhardt in a two reel production of "La Tosca" for Monday night only. This is a film of art of Sardon's masterpiece and is acted by the world's greatest actress in the greatest dramatic success of her career.

This picture is secured at considerable expense and the management is to be commended in bringing here at no raise in price such films as this, and many other big things that are to follow in the near future.

The picture that is on the program today, "Miss Robinson Crusoe," is a picture of more than the ordinary quality: in fact, it is beautiful, with a clever plot. Two full reels, fine acting, full of action and is produced by the Thanhouser company. It is the best thing to date by that excellent company. Tomorrow an entire change of vaudeville and four reels of first run films.
