The board of directors of the Chautauqua association meet tonight at 7:30 at the office of William Miller. Business of considerable importance is to come up.

The Arcade parade yesterday afternoon was one of the unique advertising stunts that moving picture houses hit upon. The band led 16 marching boys carrying the letters of Sarah Bernhardt, who featured a film at the Arcade last night, and last evening the La Grande band was out for a short concert on the streets.

FOR SALE—Piano in good shape. $100. Must sell by Friday night. Inquire Observer office. 11-19-20

Eighteen were taken into the mysteries of Moosedom last night with a big attendance of members present. Following the ritualistic work a banquet was served to about 200 members, and musical numbers interspersed the courses. It was one of the banner events of the Moose lodge.

The old time dollar went a deal farther than the modern dollar. It was also harder to get.
