

FOUR PIANOS SOLD FIRST DAY, ALSO 1 PLAYER PIANO-MORESTILL

Never Before Have Such Beautiful Pianos in the Finest Figured Mahogany, Specially Selected Walnut and Golden and Flemish Oak Cases Been Offered to the People of This Valley at Such Prices. Read this Article Carefully.

If you looked in a window and saw a pair of shoes such as you had been in the habit of buying for $6.00 on sale for $3.50 you would surely step in and buy them even if you didn't intend to buy a pair for a month—wouldn't you?

Now you can get a piano that very same way—of course they will always be pianos to be had. Many at supposedly bargain prices. But how can a small dealer, who pays more than we are asking you now for his pianos give you a bargain? Again, how can a house send a high priced salesman to you with one or possibly two pianos to choose from, shipped at a big expense, offer you the bargains we can who maintain a store here—ship pianos by the carload?

We cannot afford to sell pianos always at the prices we are now quoting. We are, as the saying goes, up against it. We must dispose of these instruments quickly and prices and terms are the methods we will employ. The same prices and terms that enabled us to sell over four hundred pianos in six weeks in Portland before closing our big store there.

Those just arrived here came too late to be included in that sale so we had them shipped directly to La Grande. Thus your opportunity presents itself.

Perhaps you had thought of waiting another year before buying your piano. But if you can save from one to two hundred dollars won't it pay you to investigate now?

On rare occasions people in the large cities have an opportunity to buy pianos at a saving, but never before have the people of a small city had such an opportunity. You can not afford to overlook this chance.

Do not make the mistake of thinking that you have to pay cash. We will arrange the easiest of terms on any instrument in stock. Only dealers will be asked to pay cash.

We will be open every evening from 7 till 9 so if you can't come in the day time come after supper. But come. It costs nothing to look.
