

La Grande Society

The most elaborate social event which took place this week was a series of parties given by Mrs. Wm. Allison, Mrs. F. Kiddle and Mrs. Mer- toid Kiddle, at the home of the former on Wednesday and Thursday after- noons. The Allison home was fit- tingly decorated for the occasion which added to the enjoyment of the guests, which comprised twelve tables of whist each afternoon. A dainty three course luncheon was served by the hostesses and their assistants. On Wednesday afternoon first honors fell to Mrs. Arthur Wenzel and second to Mrs. J. H. Alkine, and on Thursday afternoon first honors fell to Mrs. Lockwood and second to Mrs. J. H. Childs.

The card party given by the ladies of the Catholic church in the K. of P. hall on Wednesday was a success. The evening was spent in playing five hundred, prizes being won by Mr. and Mrs. Dan Sommer of Elgin. A dainty luncheon was served, after which dancing was indulged in by the young people. This is the last party to be given by the ladies until after the holiday when they will be resumed again.

The San Souci club was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Lockwood on Wednesday evening. The evening was spent in playing five hundred, Mrs. John Thelton winning the ladies first prize and Claude

Scranton the gentleman's first prize.

The "Omnia" club was entertained at the home of Miss Inez Knowles last evening. After spending a most delightful time a dainty luncheon was served by the hostess.

The Ladies' Neighborhood club will meet Tuesday afternoon promptly at 2 o'clock. This is to be a very interesting meeting as the delegates sent to the state convention have returned and will be ready to report some of the wonderful things the women of this state are accomplishing. The club study for the day is Wash- ington Irving.

Roll call—Brief description of one of Irving's characters.
Irving, the humorist—Miss Anson.
Irving, the essayist—Mrs. Lynch.
Art: Hudson River School—Mrs. Oliver.

Members of the Daughters of the Hilario Jocund surprised Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Palmer this week, about 30 spending an informal evening at the Palmer home. Nuts and candy were at hand a-plenty and the even- ing was a very pleasing one to the entire group. This club has several interesting meetings before it.

The Calendar club met with Mrs. Billings the 15th. The affair was in the nature of a surprise and was much enjoyed by all present. On Friday afternoon this week the ladies of the same club were enter- tained in honor of the two retiring officers, Mrs. Frank W. Pattison and Mrs. C. E. Happersett who were quite surprised as they intended to attend a committee meeting. After refresh- ments they were tendered with pretty pieces of hand-painted chinaware.

Tuesday evening was a big evening for the half-hundred couples who were guests at dancing at the initi- ation of the Knights of Single Life. This club is made up of P. A. Foley, Jerome Foley, Clint Van Fleet, Nor- man Desilet, Don Scott and James O'Neal. Dancing was enjoyed until midnight, and a rather unique phase of the party was the re-arrangement of the punch bowl which was placed on tables in the center of the floor. The guests were highly pleased with the hostmanship of the six young men.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Snodgrass en- tertained the evening pinocle club at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Van Buren Tuesday evening. H. Selgrist was the lucky one carrying home first prize. A refreshing two-course luncheon was served.

On next Friday afternoon Mrs. M. B. Donohue will entertain the after- noon section of the Kaffee Klatch. This was the meeting scheduled for Mrs. Chester Newlin's home but Mrs. Donohue will entertain this time in- stead.

The ladies and gentlemen of the Kaffee Klatch were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. A. Stange and Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Scroggins, at the home of the former on Fourth street last eve- ning. Mrs. Jay Van Buren and Mrs. P. S. Robinson captured prizes.

The announced "Hayseed" dance which was to be given Thanksgiving night by the Elks has been changed, in nature only, and instead of the hayseed phase will be a regular mid- month dancing party for the mem- bers.

The Loyal Order of Moose will give their first "at Home" next Monday evening when cards and dancing will be in order. All members and their lady friends are invited to be present on the occasion.

Mrs. Herman Siegrist was hostess to the members of the afternoon Bil- liken club Friday afternoon. After spending the afternoon in sewing a delightful luncheon was served.

A few high school friends of Miss Grace Pickens tendered her a most delightful "surprise" last evening. A merry time was had until a late hour.

Edward Clark and Miss Jolsa E. Miller both of this county, were married in the Christian church November 20, 1912, by A. G. Lane.

William H. Waldron and Mrs. Ruby Page were married Wednesday even- ing November 20, at the Christian parsonage, Rev. Adams officiating.

The Foley grill was the scene of a merry party Thursday evening when a number of gentlemen indulged in a "Stag Crawfish Feed."

The Mitem club met at the home of Miss Ethel Gulling on Washington street Wednesday evening.

WHEN THE ALARM CLOCK RINGS

Do you snuggle a little deeper in the covers and wish with all your might that you didn't have to get up in the cold to dress? Well, you're not the only one. There never was but one man in La Grande who liked to get up in the cold, and he moved away.

Here's a suggestion; get one of our

Luminous Electric Radiators

Then when the alarm br-r-r-s!, press the button, and in a very few minutes your cold bedroom will be warm enough to dress in. Try it just once.

Luminous Electric Heaters cost about as much to run as an electric iron. They furnish the ideal method for warming up bedrooms, bathrooms, cozy corners, etc. On display at our of- fice.
