A Great Merchandise Movement To Adjust The Store and Its Stock

to the demands of the Christmas season. Now that the hurry and bustle of the Thanksgiving season is past we are turning our attention to preparation for the busiest time of the store year—the Xmas season. We have planned for a bigger holiday business than ever. The vast stock of holiday goods will require lots of room, so we are going to devote the entire week to condensing stocks, clearing shelves, cases and racks. Dozens of small lots, broken assortments and odds and ends—but seasonable, desirable and stylish just the same—from our fall business will be closed out at sacrifice prices, far below the regular values. December is here and time is too precious to waste, so we have cut prices deeply to make room as quickly as possible. There will not be a day this week when anyone who visits this store will not be impressed with the exceptionally economical buying possibilities presented on every side and in each department of the store. Many articles are especially suitable for Christmas gifts. Read—Anticipate—Act.

New Bargain lots will go on sale from day to day. These below are all ready.

GEIBEL'S

How One Small Deal Saved Three Parties From Losing.

It was as follows: Mrs. Smith bought a sack of La Grande Milling Co.'s Blue Stem Flour. So won, her grocer won, the La Grande Milling company won, that money changed hands three times in one day and is still left at home, ready for spending again and when you wear money out spending it at home. It's no sin. Our motto is "Home, Sweet Home." Let's all follow this system, not only on the Blue Stem flour but on everything else. Keep the money rolling but don't let it roll out of the Grande Ronde valley. If we do, it never comes back. It's gone, and we can't replace it. Your grocer will give you a guarantee on this flour, whereby you can't lose, so if you have never tried it do so now. It's really good. 11-30-2t
