

Chance to Obtain a Small Home Away Below Cost

A nice four room house on the corner of N. Fir and Y avenue. Two lots, city water, sewer facilities, street improvement now in course of construction; near school house. The owner has moved away and has cut the price from $1200.00 to $840.00. Enough said; go and look at the property, bring in your money and own a home that will not only increase in value but is considerably below the cost of production. Here is a proposition where cash talks.

House To Rent.

A seven room modern house in the western portion of the city one block from paved street. The rental is only $20.00. Can get lease until spring.

I have two 80 acre farms that the owner's will take city property anywhere from $1500 to $2500 for, that are worthy of investigation by any who might have property to exchange. If interested call at office.

GEO. H. CURREY REAL ESTATE

Sorrows of Authorship.
"Paradise Lost" brought Milton only a paltry £5—about $25 of our money.

Hawthorne for twenty years continued to be, to use his own words, "the obscurest man of letters in America." "There is not much market for my wares," he said at another time.

Thoreau is an interesting example. A thousand copies of his "A Week on the Concord and Merrimack Rivers" were printed, but very few of these were sold, and a considerable number were given away by the author. The remainder were returned to him and were stored in his attic. He grimly observed, "I have now a library of 900 volumes, the greater portion of which I myself have written."—New York Press.

Railway Station Library.

In the refreshment room of a Sussex (England) railway station the traveler may see a small rack of books. If he is sufficiently curious to look he will discover from a written label that the books are the property of the vicar of the town, who places them at the disposal of any passenger who likes to take a volume away, the only condition being that he shall return the volume to its place on his return or post it to the vicar.

His Part.

Magistrate (to witness)—I understand that you overheard the quarrel between the defendant and his wife? Witness—Yes, sir, Magistrate—Tell the court, if you can, what he seemed to be doing. Witness—He seemed to be doing the listening.

Pretty Bad.

Wife—Tom, I wish you wouldn't play poker. I don't even like the name of the game. Hub—Why not? Wife—It suggests "playing with fire."—Boston Transcript.

It is easy to learn something about everything, but difficult to learn everything about anything.—Emmons.

A Night of Terror.

Few nights are more terrible than that of a mother looking on her child choking and gasping for breath during an attack of croup, and nothing in the house to relieve it. Many mothers have passed nights of terror in this situation. A little forethought will enable you to avoid all this. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a certain cure for croup and has never been known to fail. Keep it at hand. For sale by all druggists.

Only a Fire Here.

but the crowd cheered, as, with burned hands, he held up a small round box, "Fellows!" he shouted, "this Buckle's Arnica Salve I hold has everything beat for burns." Right! also for boils, ulcers, sores, pimples, eczema, cuts, sprains, bruises, Sore-throat, etc. It subdues inflammation and kills pain. Only 25 cents at all druggists.
