La Grande Society

Probably too much business around the gift-making table is responsible for rather a dull week in society; then the overdose of the Thanksgiving season may be responsible for the slight lull prevalent the first week in January a month due to go into history with a loud social hurra. The young people have been the most active during the week, several very delightful parties being arranged for them, but on the whole card clubs have been the chief social attraction for the middle aged and older folks. Several elaborate functions are under plans for the month end season and the slight lull early in the month threatens to be short-lived.

Get this idea of rough, high-proof, strong whiskey out of your head---or it will get you---play the devil with your nerves---ruin your digestion.

Miss Ruth Russell entertained at five hundred on Thursday evening, at her home, corner Washington and Third. A two course luncheon was served the guests who were: Mr. and Mrs. Claude Scranton, Misses Ethel and Mayme Reith, Lucretia Wood, Nell Grummitt, Miss Thatcher of Logan, Utah; and Messrs. Stoddard, Squires, French and Blackwell. Honors at cards were won by Miss Ethel Reith.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bay were host and hostess to the Pinochle club on Monday evening. This was the regular twice-a-month session of the
