Rev. H. B. Foskett, the evangelist, will speak morning and evening. The subjects are printed elsewhere in this paper. Paul Blackstone, the evangelist, will render several titful solos and lead a full choir each service. Mr. Blackstone will also sing at the men's meeting in the Y. M. C. A. in the afternoon. The people of La Grande are most cordially invited.

JUNIOR CHORUS TONIGHT

The Boys and Girls Will Sing at the Methodist Church.

There was a good meeting at the Methodist church last night. Those in attendance heard a splendid message from Dr. Fyke on "Expenses." A pleasing feature of the song service was the old favorite, "Steal Away," sung by the male quartet. "The Ninety and Nine," sung by Mr. Lane, was another.

The Junior chorus will take the place of the big chorus tonight and the male quartet will sing. Tomorrow will be the greatest day of the campaign. The quartet will sing and the chorus will be at its best, using "Sail On" and "All Hail Immanuel," two famous choruses written by Mr. Gabriel.

Baptist Themes Announced.

Rev. H. B. Foskett and Paul Blackstone make the following announcements for the first week of the evangelical meetings at the Baptist church:

Sunday, Dec. 8. — Morning, "The Gospel That Goes." Evening, "The Wages of Sin."

Monday evening, "God's First Question to Man."

Tuesday "No Neutrals in this War"

Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, "Modern Sin and the Moral Law."

1. "God, Home and Mother."

2. "Social Vice, Amusements, the Dead Line."

3. "Life and Death, Supreme Choice."

Saturday, "The Social Program of Jesus."

Mr. Blackstone will sing special numbers at every service. A full chorus will lead the praise meetings. You are cordially invited.

Those beautiful shopping bags at Silverthorn's till Saturday only. Don't miss seeing them. 12-5-2t
