THE FAMOUS ENGLISH PONY BALLET IN FISHER'S GORGEOUS SUCCESS, "THE RED ROSE," WHICH COMES HERE DEC. 14.

A Vancouver, B. C., paper says of "The Red Rose" that comes here with five carloads of people and scenery Dec. 14:

It was just like one of the nights gone by at the old opera house. The audience was enthusiastic, the show the best of its kind this season, the artists clever and the music tingling, haunting and always tuneful. It might be added that the costumes and scenery also were splendid and as one more addenda that the occasion was "The Red Rose" at the Imperial. Vancouver needs a theatrical stimulant such as this just to keep her taste from getting dormant while real theatres are being built.

"The Red Rose" is exhilarating, so much so that it leaves the senses bewildered. It romps along through a maze of fun and frolic and song—all of the best—until the final chorus. It is the prettiest light opera that has been sent out since "The Merry Widow" and it is a question if the music and libretto are not even more satisfying than that popular piece.

Miss Zoe Barnett was the star last night. She suffered from a cold, but she sang and danced as charmingly as ever, and she proved herself a real actress of temperament by her quick changes from grave to gay.

All of Lola's songs made a hit and half of Vancouver today is whistling the haunting "Come Along My Cherie." To Walter Catlett, as Spiegel, the picture dealer, must be given the comedy palm. It was one long laugh when he was on the stage and the risible wave was carried along by Charles Clear, who gave a clever caricature of an English Johnnie and sang and danced admirably.

on application to the undersigned within ten (10) days from the 4th day of December, 1912, which is the first date of the publication of this notice, they will be allowed to pay such assessment in ten (10) annual installments, the first installment there of being due and payable on or before the 4th day of December, 1913. If application is not made as above provided, the whole amount will be and become due, payable and delinquent on the 14th day of December, 1912.

All property owners interested are hereby notified to appear at my office in the city hall and pay the same.
