club, and delicious refreshments were served. J. G. Snodgrass won honors at cards.

Mr. and Mrs. Colon R. Eberhard delightfully entertained the Sans Souci club and a few specially invited guests at the Eberhard home on Wednesday evening. Five hundred in the "specie" of cards played by this social organization and Mrs. De Lile Green and Charles S. Dunn were winners for the evening. Toothsome refreshments were served.

The Omae girls, a little club of young ladies of the high school, were entertained at a theatre party by Miss N. Lucile Allen Thursday evening.

Quite a crowd gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Wells on Third street and Jefferson avenue, for the purpose of surprising the Wells brothers, one night this week. It was one of those old-fashioned parties at which nobody stands on dignity but where fun and mirth are supreme. It was a kind of red letter day for the boys and one which they will long remember and often speak about. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess who was on to the game, and cards and dancing were indulged in late hour. Those who helped to make the hours merry were:

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Leavitt, Mr. and Mrs. J. Redenau, Mr. and Mrs. R. Wells, Mr. and Mrs. W. Noland, Mr. and Mrs. W. Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. H. Brookman, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gordon, Mesdames Sweeney and Ellis, Miss Bessie White, Messrs. Bohelm, Durysa, Rhinehart, Voltz, Stanfield, Williams and A. and R. Wells.

The Ladies Neighborhood club will meet Tuesday afternoon in their commodious quarters. This promises to be a very interesting meeting. Club study for the day:

Mrs. J. C. Gulling entertained the Five Hundred club on Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Jay Van Buren won the honors.

Wednesday evening five couples answered invitations from the Girls' club of Union to their dancing party. The girls of the sister city did everything possible for the comfort and pleasure of the visitors and all left with the feeling that Union's hospitality is second to none. The party consisted of Misses Reith, Murphy, Penington, Haines and Gulling; Messrs. Stewart, Young, Stoddard, Squires and Thomas.

R. Blackwell entertained informally last Monday evening. After spending the evening in playing five hundred a delightful luncheon was served. Miss Mayme Reith and L. J. French carried home first prizes.

Miss Irene Murphy was hostess last evening to a theatre party, after which the guests were entertained at her home until a late hour, the occasion being the celebration of Miss Murphy's birthday.

The afternoon section of the Kaffee Klatch will be entertained Friday afternoon of next week by Mrs. Jay Van Buren.

Miss B. Clark entertained a number of her lady friends at her studio on Main avenue last evening. All report a most enjoyable time.

Ladies and gentlemen of the Kaffee Klatch and a few special guests were delightfully entertained last evening by Mr. and Mrs. Jay Van Buren, 808 Main. Honors at five hundred were won by George T. Cochran or the men and Miss Margaret Newlin for the ladies. Refreshments topped out the evening's entertainment.

Monday, Dec. 2, the sixth convention of District No. 28 met with Crystal Rebekah lodge of La Grande. Mrs. Rachel Worstell chairman and Mrs. Louise Goodbrod, vice chairman. Three sessions were held, in the morning, afternoon and evening. Mrs. S. Mae Greer, president of the (Rebekah state assembly, was among the prominent members present. A large number of delegates were here from Union, Cove, Summerville and Elgin. The evening session was chiefly a social affair, the program being principally an initiation into the order of Hilario Joke, at the shrine of Mother Goose. It was a most successful convention and was very well attended. The next convention will be held at Union with Mrs. Dora Meyers of Union as chairman. Mrs. Della Wagner of La Grande will be vice chairman on that occasion.
