

PERSONALS.

H. M. Bay leaves tonight for Portland on business matters, to be gone a few days.

John Baker, a retired merchant of Joseph, left on an extended tour of the sunny state of California. He will visit Odessa, San Diego, and other points in the southern part of the state and will be gone an indefinite period of time.

C. A. Norris of the enterprising town of Elgin returned to that place this morning.

Prof. M. Holter, principal of the Perry schools, was a business visitor of La Grande over Sunday.

D. W. Sanford of Hilgard arrived in the city this morning to act as juror.

Mrs. John Terrell of Pomeroy went to Elgin this morning to spend a few days at the home of W. M. Cantrell. Miss J. Gibson, of La Grande, was a passenger on the east bound train this morning. Her destination is Salt Lake.

Miss Pease Smith, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Thornton, of La Grande, returned to her home this morning.

E. Shores of Milton, who has been in the employ of C. W. Love departed for the old homestead this morning. He states that mother's cooking is drawing him back home.

Miss Tracey Cramer, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. C. M. Dexter of this city, departed for Palmer, Idaho, this morning. Her home is in Enterprise.

Mrs. P. J. Chandler of Elgin who has been visiting her son Percy Chandler and family on 1911 W avenue for the past week returned to her home this morning.

W. S. Barnett of La Grande departed for the Walla Walla country today where he will put his hand to the axe and fell some of the big trees of the primeval forest.

Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell of Meadows, Idaho, passed through the city on their way to Summerville where they will visit Mrs. Mitchell's mother, Mrs. Zweifel.

Chas. Murphy, state deputy of the Knights of Columbus, was in the city yesterday. He is a prominent attorney from Baker and is well known in La Grande.

Rev. C. E. Lane, who has been director of music during the Methodist revival here, left this morning for Haines where he takes up similar work for a week. He made many warm friends while in La Grande.

J. H. Rudd, secretary of the Y. M. C. A., went to Elgin today to interest that community in sending a delegation to the big boys' meeting in Payette soon. He was in Baker yesterday and has found keen interest everywhere in the big gathering of boys.

Mrs. Minnie Pike and Mrs. George Parker went to Telocaset to visit with Mrs. Henry Henson for the Sunday. Mrs. Henson has been an invalid, suffering from rheumatism for the past five years. Mrs. Henson was presented with a beautiful bouquet of flowers by these good friends.

Mrs. Maggie Warren returned to Sunnyside, Washington, this morning after a pleasant visit with her sister, Mrs. Ed. Phillips of this city. She was accompanied by the baby, little Miss Leona.

F. A. Cook, collecting agent for the Rumely Manufacturing company of Indiana, went to Baker this morning in the interest of the firm. He just recently returned from the Walla Walla country and states that the crops in the famous valley are only fair this year, and do not compare with the crops of the Grande Ronde.

SELIG'S WILD ANIMAL SENSATION "KINGS OF THE FOREST"

SHERRY'S

Wednesday and Thursday

MOST EXCITING PICTURES EVER PRODUCED! THRILLING MOTION PICTURE OF JUNGLE LIFE. MARVELOUS! MELODRAMATIC!

Selig's latest and greatest wild animal masterpiece. This is the film that has startled all picturedom. Absolutely the most all-enthralling, vivid and fascinating drama of its kind that has ever been enacted before the camera. See the wild animals stalking a baby girl in the heart of the jungles. See the ferocious beasts wreak havoc in the covered wagon and carry away a live calf. Two reels of similar sensational incidents. Clever action and wonderful story.

Without a doubt this remarkable two reel drama of the Transvaal jungles is Selig's greatest and most thrilling wild animal masterpiece. This means that beyond all question it is the most elaborate, daring and thrilling spectacular subject ever produced anywhere at any time, by any maker. It is a vivid, gripping, all-enthralling story of jungle terrors that will live forever in the minds of those who witness it.

Don't Fail to See This Sensation of the Film World! ... Go Where the Go's Go.
