DIRECTOR IS BARRED.

School Director, in Emergency, Can't Work for His District.

(Enterprise Record-Clatsain.)
A school director cannot do any work for pay on a school building under his care, Attorney General A. M. Crawford holds in a letter to Superintendent J. C. Conley. Mr. Conley wrote for an opinion after the question had arisen in a district where one of the directors was about the only man in the neighborhood qualified to make needed alterations. The law forbids a director to furnish any supplies to the district or to do work but it did not seem sufficiently explicit on the point of whether the director might help put the school in order and receive pay for it.

Strict adherence to the law will work a hardship in some small districts, where the directors are likely to be the men who live nearest the school house, and who are thus able to care for it. In such cases it often is difficult to get help to make repairs and directors have had to do the work themselves.

Mr. Crawford's letter states: "I have your letter of the 9th instant asking for information as to whether or not a school director could legally accept a contract at the hands of the other directors of the district, for the building of a school house, or for any work in connection therewith, and receive pay from the district; and replying I would state that it is the opinion of this office that has been rendered before, that a director could not either directly or indirectly have anything to do with furnishing the district in the way you suggest, that such action would be directly in conflict with the statute."

Drives Off a Terror.

The chief executioner of death in the winter and spring months is pneumonia. Its advance agents are colds and grip. In any attack by one of these maladies no time should be lost in taking the best medicine obtainable to drive it off. Countless thousands have found this to be Dr. King's New Discovery. "My husband believes it has kept him from having pneumonia three or four times," writes Mrs. George W. Place, Rawsonville, Vt., "and for coughs, colds and croup we have never found its equal." Guaranteed for all bronchial affections. Price 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottle free at all druggists.
