College Chess Match.

New York, Dec. 26.—The annual tournament of the Trinangular College Chess league got under way in earnest today at the Brooklyn Chess club. Pennsylvania, Cornell and Brown are the colleges represented. This is the 14th annual tournament in which these three colleges have engaged. The prize is a handsome trophy donated by Isaac L. Rice of this city. Pennsylvania and Cornell are now tied in the race for the trophy.

Dominion Checker Tourney.

Toronto, Ont., Dec. 26.—Expert checker players from many points throughout Canada assembled at the rooms of the Toronto Checker club today for the opening of the annual Dominion championship tournament. Three hundred dollars in cash prizes will be divided among the winners of the tournament.

Bryan Predicts Struggle.

Lincoln, Neb., Dec. 26.—Bryan's Commoner today predicts that the party will have difficulty over the committee assignments at Washington. The point is: Will length of service have precedence over sympathy with the Progressive movement?

Killings Denied by Lumber Company.

Bemidji, Minn., Dec. 26.—Early reports gave out the information that lumberjacks in the woods at this place had gotten into a wrangle and cut each other to pieces with axes. The lumber company controlling the camps issued a statement denying the reports that 14 of their men had been killed in the drunken brawl during a Christmas orgy, but admitted that the usual celebration fight occurred and that a number of the men were badly hurt.

Montana Teachers at Missoula.

Missoula, Mont., Dec. 26. — Many teachers are in attendance on the 23rd annual meeting of the Montana State Teachers' association, which is being held here. General sessions and meetings of the various departments will carry the convention over Friday and Saturday. Superintendent J. M. Hamilton of Bozeman is presiding.

To Hear Prominent Educators.

Peoria, Ill., Dec. 26.—Public school teachers of Illinois gathered here in force today and began what promises to be the most successful convention in the history of their state association.
