tion the material wastes, so it should also count as a part of the cost of production the human waste, which it employs.

"No compensation is fair which does not secure to each worker at least enough to permit him, or her, decent standards of life. The workers themselves have not always been able to secure such compensation for themselves. Particularly has this been true of women and children in whom the state should take an especial interest. To secure for these less accustomed to the competitive struggle protection that other workers have won for themselves through organization, we should carefully consider the establishment of wage boards with authority to fix a living wage for conditions of work below which standards no industry should be allowed to continue its operations. Massachusetts has enacted such a law. Ohio, recently adopted a constitutional amendment authorizing the state legislature to do the same.

"For the welfare of the state child life must be protected. Not only should the child be guaranteed the right to be born equal but it must be given the chance to live, to grow, to learn and to develop into useful and patriotic citizenship.

The work period must not be permitted to infringe on the formative and the maturing periods. Compulsory educational laws and restrictions upon child labor, properly enforced, will secure to every child of the state its rightful heritage. This development period will enhance national progress and aid civilization. The matured developed worker will bring to industry greater ability and resourcefulness. No business has an inalienable right to child labor. No industry has a right to rob the state of that which constitutes its greatest wealth. No commerce that demands on child labor for its success has a right to exist. Let us do what we can to protect the children of the state and preserve their fundamental rights.

"Another type of legislation beneficial to the state that aims to conserve human life and health, is that which requires the use of safety appliances and establishes safety standards. Human life is infinitely more valuable than the profit of material things. The state for its own preservation has the right to demand the use of safer and more hygienic methods, even if at greater cost of production to the employes. Occupational diseases should be studied and the results of careful investigation embodied in laws to safeguard the health and the lives of the workers.

"Practical results of such legislation prove that these regulations are a good investment. Employers find it pays to have healthy, vigorous, resourceful workers who are well fed, well housed and not overworked. Statistics prove that the welfare of the worker is indissolubly involved in permanent industrial progress."

Sulzer declared for reorganization of the state department of labor "for the benefit of the workers" and for constructive work by the state civil service commission so that "promotion examinations should be standardized" and the civil service laws better enforced. He declared for autonomy and home rule for communities, immediate reform of legal procedure; legislation to aid the farmers and strengthen agricultural colleges; better roads and waterways and reforms which will keep down taxes.

DONT PULL OUT THE GRAY HAIRS

A Few Applications of a Simple Remedy Will Bring Back the Natural Color.

"Pull out one gray hair and a dozen will take its place" is an old saying which is, to a great extent, true. If no steps are taken to stop the cause. When gray hairs appear it is a sign that Nature needs assistance. It is Nature's call for help. Gray hair, dull, lifeless hair, or hair that is falling out, is not necessarily a sign of advancing age, for there are thousands of elderly people with perfect head of hair without a single streak of gray.

When gray hairs come, or when the hair seems to be lifeless or dead, some good, reliable hair-restoring treatment should be resorted to at once. Specialists say that one of the best preparations to use is the old-fashioned "sage tea" which our grandparents used. The best preparation of this kind is Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, a preparation of domestic sage and sulphur, scientifically compounded with later discovered hair tonics and stimulants, the whole mixture being carefully balanced and tested by experts. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is clean and wholesome and perfectly harmless. It refreshes dry, parched hair removes dandruff and gradually restores faded or gray hair to its natural color.

Don't delay another minute. Start using Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur at once and see what a difference a few days' treatment will make in your hair.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.

1913 SWEAR OFF USING Kerosene Lamps

RESOLVED; No more smoky, dangerous oil lamps for me.

I'm going to install ELECTRIC LIGHTS in my home. They are more convenient and cleaner, and will save my wife a lot of work. They will be safe, and easy on my eyes. Better still, they will cost me no more than I am paying now for the same amount of light.
