J. M. Blakely, son of the centenarian Captain Blakely, formerly of union county, was a visitor in La Grande. His father celebrated his hundredth birthday on the 26th of November. Captain Blakely was born in the state of Tennessee and came across the plains in the year 1846. He was a captain in the Rogue river Indian war, and also in the Seminole Indian war, coming out of both without serious injury. He is today hale and hearty and seems good for a decade more of usefulness.

As this is the first of our new year we wish to thank our many loyal friends and patrons for their liberal support during 1912, which has far exceeded our most sanguine expectations. Our many friends and patrons probably are not aware of the fact that we have the dividends on their purchases figured now and are paying same daily to the people that profits justly belong.

Come with us through 1913 for a successful business.
